No Officer employee shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his service under the Bank.

13. Absence from Duties

- 1) No officer employee shall absent himself from his duty or be late in attending office or leave the station without having first obtained the permission of the Competent Authority :

Provided that in the case of unavoidable circumstances where availing of prior permission is not possible or is difficult, such permission may be obtained later subject to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that such a permission could not have been obtained.

- 2) No officer employee shall ordinarily absent himself in case of sickness or accident without submitting a proper medical certificate:

Provided that in the case of temporary indisposition or sickness of a casual nature, the production of a medical certificate may at the absolute discretion of the Competent Authority, be dispensed with.

14. Acceptance of gifts

- 1) Save as otherwise provided in these regulations no officer employee shall accept or permit any member of his family or any person acting on his behalf to accept any gift.

EXPLANATION:

1. In so far as it relates to the acceptance of gift by any member of the family of the officer employee from the members' near relative, or from a personal friend having no official dealings with the officer employee, the same shall be excluded from the purview of 'gift' in the said Regulation. Consequently, there would be no need to obtain prior permission or approval of the Competent Authority in such cases.⁴
2. The expression "gift" shall include free transport boarding, lodging or other service or any other pecuniary advantage when provided by any person other than a near relative or a personal friend having no official dealings with the officer employee.

Note: A casual meal, lift or other social hospitality shall not be deemed to be a gift.

⁴ Note II to the explanation omitted vide Circular 116/93 dated 08.04.1993 w.e.f. 18.01.1993.

- 2) On occasions such as marriages, anniversaries, funerals or religious functions, when the making of gifts is in conformity with the prevailing religious or social practice, an officer employee may accept gifts from his near relatives but he shall make a report to the Competent Authority if the value of the gifts exceeds Rs.500/-.
- 3) On such occasions as specified in sub-regulation (2) an officer employee may also accept gifts from his personal friends having no official dealings with him but he shall make a report to the Competent Authority if the value of such gifts exceed Rs. 200/-.
- 4) In any other case, the officer employee shall not accept any gifts without the sanction of the Competent Authority if the value of the gifts exceeds Rs. 75/-.

Provided that when more than one gift has been received from the same person or concern within a period of 12 months, the matter shall be reported to the Competent Authority if the aggregate value thereof exceeds Rs. 500/-.

Note: As a normal practice an officer employee shall not accept any gift from any person or institution having official dealings with the officer employee.

- 5) DOWRY: No officer employee shall -
 - (a) give or take or abet the giving or taking of dowry; or
 - (b) demand, directly or indirectly, from the parents or guardian of a bride or bride-groom as the case may be, any dowry.

EXPLANATION:

1. For the purpose of this Regulation 'DOWRY' has the same meaning as in the Dowry Prohibition Act 1961 (28 of 1961).
2. The amendment will come into force with effect from 23.04.1981
