- (iii) an officially valid document in respect of the person holding an attorney to transact on its behalf; and
- (iv) such information as may be required by the banking company or the financial institution or the intermediary to collectively establish the legal existence of such an association or body of individuals.

(6A) Where the client is a juridical person, the banking company, financial institution and intermediary, as the case may be, shall verify that any person purporting to act on behalf of such client is so authorised and verify the identity of that person.

(7) (i) The regulator shall issue guidelines incorporating the requirements of sub-rules (1) to (6A) above and may prescribe enhanced measures to verify the client's identity taking into consideration type of client, business relationship or nature and value of transactions.

(ii) Every banking company, financial institution and intermediary as the case may be, shall formulate and implement a Client Identification Programme to determine the true identity of its clients, incorporating requirements of sub-rules (1) to (6A) and guidelines issued under clause (i) above.”

1. Ins. by G.S.R. 544(E), dated 7th July, 2015 (w.e.f. 7-7-2015).

- (i) there is a change in the information of the client as existing in the records of Central KYC Records Registry;
- (ii) the current address of the client is required to be verified;
- (iii) the reporting entity considers it necessary in order to verify the identity or address of the client, or to perform enhanced due diligence or to build an appropriate risk profile of the client.]

<sup>1</sup>[(1D) A reporting entity after obtaining additional or updated information from a client under sub-rule (1C), shall as soon as possible furnish the updated information to the Central KYC Records Registry which shall update the existing KYC records of the client and the Central KYC Records Registry shall thereafter inform electronically all reporting entities who have dealt with the concerned client regarding updation of KYC record of the said client.]

<sup>1</sup>[(1E) The reporting entity which performed the last KYC verification or sent updated information in respect of a client shall be responsible for verifying the authenticity of the identity or address of the client.]

<sup>1</sup>[(1F) A reporting entity shall not use the KYC records of a client obtained from the Central KYC Records Registry for purposes other than verifying the identity or address of the client and shall not transfer KYC records or any information contained therein to any third party unless authorised to do so by the client or by the Regulator or by the Director;]

<sup>1</sup>[(1G) The regulator shall issue guidelines to ensure that the Central KYC records are accessible to the reporting entities in real time.]

(2) For the purpose of clause (a) of sub-rule (1), a reporting entity may rely on a third party subject to the conditions that—

- <sup>2</sup>[(a) the reporting entity, within two days, obtains from the third party or from the Central KYC Records Registry records or the information of the client due diligence carried out by the third party.]
- (b) the reporting entity takes adequate steps to satisfy itself that copies of identification data and other relevant documentation relating to the client due diligence requirements will be made available from the third party upon request without delay;
- (c) the reporting entity is satisfied that such third party is regulated, supervised or monitored for, and has measures in place for compliance with client due diligence and record-keeping requirements in line with the requirements and obligations under the Act;
- (d) the third party is not based in a country or jurisdiction assessed as high risk;

1. Ins. by G.S.R. 544(E), dated 7th July, 2015 (w.e.f. 7-7-2015).

2. Subs. by G.S.R. 544(E), dated 7th July, 2015, for clause (a) (w.e.f. 7-7-2015). Clause (a), before substitution, stood as under:

“(a) the reporting entity immediately obtains necessary information of such client due diligence carried out by the third party;”.

- (e) the reporting entity is ultimately responsible for client due diligence and undertaking enhanced due diligence measures, as applicable; and
- (f) where a reporting entity relies on a third party that is part of the same financial group, the Regulator may issue guidelines to consider any relaxation in the conditions (a) to (d).

(3) The beneficial owner for the purpose of sub-rule (1) shall be determined as under—

- (a) where the client is a company, the beneficial owner is the natural person(s), who, whether acting alone or together, or through one or more juridical person, has a controlling ownership interest or who exercises control through other means.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-clause—

1. "Controlling ownership interest" means ownership of or entitlement to more than twenty-five per cent. of shares or capital or profits of the company;
  2. "Control" shall include the right to appoint majority of the directors or to control the management or policy decisions including by virtue of their shareholding or management rights or shareholders agreements or voting agreements;
- (b) where the client is a partnership firm, the beneficial owner is the natural person(s) who, whether acting alone or together, or through one or more juridical person, has ownership of/entitlement to more than fifteen per cent. of capital or profits of the partnership;
  - (c) where the client is an unincorporated association or body of individuals, the beneficial owner is the natural person(s), who, whether acting alone or together, or through one or more juridical person, has ownership of or entitlement to more than fifteen per cent. of the property or capital or profits of such association or body of individuals;
  - (d) where no natural person is identified under (a) or (b) or (c) above, the beneficial owner is the relevant natural person who holds the position of senior managing official;
  - (e) where the client is a trust, the identification of beneficial owner(s) shall include identification of the author of the trust, the trustee, the beneficiaries with fifteen per cent. or more interest in the trust and any other natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the trust through a chain of control or ownership; and
  - (f) where the client or the owner of the controlling interest is a company listed on a stock exchange, or is a subsidiary of such a company, it is not necessary to identify and verify the identity of any shareholder or beneficial owner of such companies.

<sup>1</sup>[(4) Where the client is an individual, who is eligible to be enrolled for an Aadhaar number, he shall for the purpose of sub-rule (1) submit to the reporting entity,—

- (a) the Aadhaar number issued by the Unique Identification Authority of India; and
- (b) the Permanent Account Number or Form No. 60 as defined in Income-tax Rules, 1962, and such other documents including in respect of the nature of business and financial status of the client as may be required by the reporting entity:

Provided that where an Aadhaar number has not been assigned to a client, the client shall furnish proof of application of enrolment for Aadhaar and in case the Permanent Account Number is not submitted, one certified copy of an 'officially valid document' shall be submitted.

1. Subs. by G.S.R. 538(E), dated 1st June, 2017, for sub-rule 4 to sub-rule (9) (w.e.f. 1-6-2017). Sub-rule (4) to sub-rule (9), before substitution, stood as under:

"(4) Where the client is an individual, he shall for the purpose of sub-rule (1), submit to the reporting entity, one certified copy of an 'officially valid document' containing details of his identity and address, one recent photograph and such other documents including in respect of the nature of business and financial status of the client as may be required by the reporting entity:

Provided that photograph need not be submitted by a client falling under clause (b) of sub-rule (1).

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (4), an individual who desires to open a small account in a banking company may be allowed to open such an account on production of a self-attested photograph and affixation of signature or thumb print, as the case may be, on the form for opening the account:

Provided that—
