27. The surety or sureties of such officer or other person as is aforesaid, <sup>1</sup>[* *] shall be liable to be proceeded against jointly and severally in the same manner as his or their principal is liable to be proceeded against, in case of default, and notwithstanding such principal may be so proceeded against:

Surety to be liable in the same manner as principal.

Provided always that in any case of failure to discharge or make good any sum of money due to the <sup>2</sup>[Government] or to produce any property of the <sup>2</sup>[Government] of ascertained value no greater sum than is sufficient to cover any loss or damage which the <sup>3</sup>[<sup>4</sup>[State] Government] may actually sustain by the default of the principal shall be recovered from the surety or sureties as the amount which may be due from such surety or sureties under the terms of the security bond executed by him or them :

Extent of liability.

And provided also that the said surety or sureties shall in no case be liable to imprisonment in default of producing public papers or property, if he or they pay into the Government treasury the whole or such part of the penalty named in the bond as may be demanded.

Sureties not liable to imprisonment, if penalty be paid.

28. If an officer or other person as aforesaid or his surety or sureties against whom a demand is made, shall give sufficient security in the form of Schedule D, the Collector shall cause such officer or surety if in custody to be liberated, and countermand the sale of any property that may have been attached, and restore it to the owner.

An officer or surety in jail may, by furnishing certain security, obtain his release.

29. The liability of the surety or sureties shall not be affected by the death of a principal or by his appointment to a situation different from that which he held when the bond was executed, but shall continue so long as the principal occupies any situation in which security is required <sup>5</sup>[* ***] and until his bond is cancelled.

Liability of surety not affected by death of principal or by his taking a different appointment.

The heirs of a deceased officer shall be liable by suit in the Civil Court for any claims which the <sup>2</sup>[Government] may have against the deceased, in the same way as they would be for similar claims made by an individual.

Liability of heirs of deceased officer.

30. Any surety, whether under a separate or joint bond, may withdraw from his suretyship at any time on his stating, in writing, to the officer to whom the bond has been given, that he desires so to withdraw; and his responsibility under the bond shall cease after sixty days from the date on which he gives such writing as to all demands upon his principal concerning moneys, papers or other property for which his principal may become chargeable after the expiration of such period of sixty days, but shall not cease as to any demands for which his principal may have become liable before the expiration of such period, even though the facts establishing such liability may not be discovered till afterwards.

CHAPTER IV.

[OF CERTAIN ACTS PROHIBITED TO REVENUE OFFICERS, AND OF THIER PUNISHMENT FOR MISCONDUCT.]Omitted by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council

CHAPTER V.

OF LAND AND LAND REVENUE.

All public roads, etc.,
and all lands which are not the property of

<sup>1</sup>[37. (1)] All public roads, lanes and paths, the bridges, ditches, dikes, and fences, on or beside, the same, the bed of the sea and of harbours and creeks below high water-mark, and of rivers, streams, nallas, lakes, and tanks, and all canals, and water-courses, and all standing and flowing water and all lands wherever situated, which are not the property of individuals, or of aggregates of persons legally capable of holding property, and except in so far as any rights of such persons may be established, in or over the same, and except as may be otherwise provided in any law for the time being in force are and are hereby declared to be, with all rights, in or over the same, or appertaining thereto, the property of <sup>2</sup>[the <sup>3</sup>[Government]], and it shall be lawful for the Collector subject to the orders of the <sup>4</sup>[State Government], to dispose of them in such manner as he may deem fit, or as may be authorized by general rules sanctioned by <sup>5</sup>[the Government concerned], subject always to the rights of way, and all other rights of the public or of individuals legally subsisting.

Explanation.- In this section “high-water-mark” means the highest point reached by ordinary spring-tides at any seasons of the year.

<sup>1</sup>[(3) Any suit instituted in any Civil Court after the expiration of one year from the date of any order passed <sup>6</sup>[****] under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), or, if one or more appeals have been made against such order within the period of limitation, then from the date of any order passed by the final appellate authority, as determined according to section 204, shall be dismissed (although limitation has not been set up as a defence) if the suit is brought to set aside such order or if the relief claimed is inconsistent with such order, provided that in the case of an order under sub-section (2) the plaintiff has had due notice of such order.]

6. The words “by the Collector” were omitted by second schedule of the Bombay Repealing and Amending Act, 1919 (Bom. 2 of 1919).

<sup>1</sup>[(4) Any person shall be deemed to have had due notice of an inquiry or order under this section if notice thereof has been given in accordance with rules made in this behalf by the <sup>2</sup>[<sup>3</sup>[State] Government]].

37A. (1) Whenever it appears to the <sup>4</sup>[State Government] that any public road, lane or path which is the property of <sup>5</sup>[the State Government] or part thereof, is not required for the use of the public the <sup>3</sup>[State] Government, may, by a notification published in the <sup>6</sup>[Official Gazette], make declaration to such effect stating in such declaration that it is proposed that the rights of the public as well as of all individuals in or over any such road, lane or path, or part thereof, as the case may be, shall be extinguished. On the publication of such notification, the Collector shall, as soon as possible, cause public notice of such declaration to be given at convenient places on, or in the vicinity of, such road, lane or path, or part thereof, as the case may be. Such declaration and notice shall specify, as far as practicable the situation and limits of such road, lane or path, or part thereof, and shall invite objections to the aforesaid proposal.

Extinction of rights of public and individuals in or over any public road, lane or path not required for use of public.

(2) Any member of the public or any person having any interest or right in addition to the right of public high way, in or over such road, lane or path, or part thereof, or having any other interest or right which is likely to be adversely affected by the proposal may, within ninety days after the issue of the notification under sub-section (1) state to the Collector in writing his objections to the proposal, the nature of such interest or right and the manner in which it is likely to be adversely affected, and the amount and particulars of his claim to compensation for such interest or right:

Provided that the Collector may allow any person to make such a statement after the period of ninety days after the issue of the notification under sub-section (1) if he is satisfied that such person had sufficient cause for not making it within the said period.

(3) The Collector shall give every person who has made a statement to him under sub-section (2) an opportunity of being heard either in person or by pleader and shall, after hearing all such persons in such manner and after making such further inquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, determine the amount of compensation, if any, which should, in his opinion, be given in any case in respect of any substantial loss or damage likely to be caused by the proposed extinction of the rights of the public as well as of individuals as aforesaid. The provisions of sections 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, shall, so far as may be apply to the proceedings held by the Collector for the determination of the amount of compensation under this sub-section :

I of 1894.

39. The right of grazing on free pasturage-lands shall extend only to the cattle of the village or villages to which such lands belong or have been assigned, and shall be regulated by rules to be made from time to time, either generally or in any particular instance, prescribed by the Collector with the sanction of the <sup>1</sup>[State Government]. The Collector's decision in any case of dispute as to the said right of grazing shall be conclusive.

Regulation of use of pasturage.

<sup>2</sup>[39A. Any person who shall unauthorizedly remove from any land which is set apart for a special purpose or from any land which is the property of Government, any natural product shall be liable to the Government for the value thereof, which shall be recoverable from him as an arrear of land revenue. The decision of the Collector as to the value of any such natural product shall be conclusive.]

Recovering value of natural products unauthorizedly removed from certain lands.

Concession of <sup>4</sup>[Government] rights to trees in case of settlements completed before the passing of this Act.

In the case of villages or portions of villages of which the original survey settlement shall be completed after the passing of this Act, the right of <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[Government]] to all trees in unalienated land shall be deemed to be conceded to the occupant of such land except in so far as any such rights may be reserved by <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[Government]], or by any survey officer on behalf of <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[Government]], either expressly at or about the time of such settlement, or generally by notification made and published at any time previous to the completion of the survey settlement of the district in which such village or portion of a village is situate.

Concession of <sup>4</sup>[Government] rights to trees in case of settlements completed after the passing of this Act.

When permission to occupy land has been, or shall hereafter be, granted after the completion of the survey settlement of the village or portion of a village in which such land is situate the said permission shall be deemed, to include the concession of the right of <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[Government]] to all trees growing on that land which may not have been, or which shall not hereafter be, expressly reserved at the time of granting such permission, or which may not have been reserved, under any of the foregoing provisions of this section, at or about the time of the original survey settlement of the said village or portion of a village.

Concession of <sup>4</sup>[Government] rights to trees in case of land taken up after completion of settlement.

44. In villages or lands in which the rights of <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[Government]] to the trees have been reserved under section 40 subject to certain privileges of the villagers or of certain classes or persons to cut fire-wood or timber for domestic or other purposes, and in lands which have been set apart under section 38 for forest reserves subject to such privileges and in all other cases in which such privileges exist in respect of any alienated land, the exercise of the said privileges shall be regulated by rules to be from time to time either generally or in any particular instance, prescribed by the Collector or by such other officer as <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[State] Government] may direct. In any case of dispute as to the mode or time or exercising any such privileges the decision of the Collector or of such other officer shall be conclusive.

Regulation of supply of fire - wood and timber for domestic or other purposes.

45. <sup>5</sup>[(1)] All land, whether applied to agricultural or other purposes, and wherever situate, is liable to the payment of land revenue to <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[Government]] according to the rules hereinafter enacted except such as may be wholly exempted under the provisions of any special contract with <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[Government]] or any law for the time being in force :

All land liable to pay revenue unless specially exempted.

<sup>6</sup>[Provided that a small holder shall not be liable to pay land revenue in respect of the land held by him for the time being for the purpose of agriculture.]

But nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect the power of the Legislature to direct the levy of revenue on all lands under whatever title they may be held whenever and so long as the exigencies of the State may render such levy necessary.

And special exemption may in case of necessity be overruled for a time.

<sup>7</sup>[(2) As soon as may be after the coming into force of the Bombay Land Revenue and the Gujarat Panchayats and Education Cess (Amendment) Act, 1972, every Mamlatdar shall, in respect of each of the villages in his taluka, prepare and thereafter keep and maintain, in the prescribed manner and form, an up-to-date corrected list of small holders not liable to pay land revenue under this section and for that purpose shall, from time to time, amend, delete or add any entry in that list. In order to enable the Mamlatdar to so prepare, keep and maintain such list, every person who is or becomes a small holder shall, of his own accord or on being required by the Mamlatdar to do so by a general or special notice to be issued in the prescribed manner, furnish to the Mamlatdar within whose jurisdiction the land held by him is situate within the prescribed period, such particulars as may be prescribed and thereafter inform the Mamlatdar about any changes that may take place in such particulars from time to time. The Mamlatdar shall, after receiving such particulars and after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, make, or as the case may be, amend, delete or add, any entries in the list :

Provided that the absence or the inclusion of the name of any person from or in such list shall not by itself be conclusive evidence as to the liability or non-liability of any such person as regards the payment of land revenue.

Liability of alluvial lands to land revenue.

46. All alluvial lands, newly-formed islands, or abandoned river-bed which vest, under any law for the time being in force in any holder of alienated land, shall be subject in respect of liability to the payment of land revenue to the same privileges, conditions, or restrictions as are applicable to the original holding in virtue of which such lands, islands, or river-beds so vest in the said holder, but no revenues shall be leviable in respect of any such lands, islands, or river-beds until or unless the area of the same exceeds half an acre and also exceeds one tenth of the area of the said original holding.

Assessment of land revenue in cases of diluvion.

CHAPTER VI.

60. Any person desirous of taking up unoccupied land which has not been alienated must, previously to entering upon occupation obtain the permission in writing of the Mamlatdar or Mahalkari.

Written permission of Mamlatdar or Mahalkari required previous to taking up unoccupied land.

61. <sup>2</sup>[Any person who shall unauthorizedly enter upon occupation of any land set apart for any special purpose, or any unoccupied land which has not been alienated, and any person who uses or occupies any such land to the use or occupation of which by reason of any of the provisions of this Act he is not entitled or has ceased to be entitled shall,]

Penalties for unauthorized occupation of land.

if the land which he unauthorizedly occupies forms part of an assessed survey number, pay the assessment of the entire number for the whole period of his <sup>3</sup>[unauthorized] occupation, and if the land so occupied by him has not been assessed, such amount of assessment as would be leviable for the said period in the same village on the same extent of similar land <sup>4</sup>[used for] the same purpose; and shall also be liable, at the discretion of the Collector, to a fine not exceeding <sup>5</sup>[one per cent of the prevalent annual statement of rate (Jantri) as may be notified by the state Government from time to time] if he has taken up the land for purposes of cultivation, and not exceeding such limit as may be fixed in rules <sup>6</sup>[* *] made in this behalf under section 214, if he has <sup>7</sup>[used it for] any non-agricultural purpose.

The Collector's decision as to the amount of assessment payable for the land unauthorizedly occupied shall be conclusive, and in determining its amount occupation for <sup>8</sup>[a portion] of year shall be counted as for a whole year.

The person unauthorizedly occupying any such land may be summarily evicted by the collector, and any crop <sup>9</sup>[* * *] raised in the land shall be liable to forfeiture, and any building, or other construction, <sup>9</sup>[***] erected thereon shall also, if not removed by him after such written notice as the Collector may deem reasonable, be liable to forfeiture, <sup>10</sup>[ or to summary removal].

Forfeitures under this section shall be adjudged by the Collector, and any property so forfeited shall be disposed of as the Collector may direct <sup>9</sup>[and the cost of the removal of any encroachment under this section shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue].

Unoccupied land may be granted on conditions.

<sup>1</sup>[62. It shall be lawful for the Collector subject to such rules as may from time to time be made by the <sup>2</sup>[<sup>3</sup>[State] Government] in this behalf, to require the payment of a price for unalienated land or to sell the same by auction and to annex such conditions to the grant as he may deem fit, before permission to occupy is given under section 60. The price (if any) paid for such land shall include the price of the <sup>4</sup>[Government] right to all trees not specially reserved under the provisions of section 40 and shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.]

Grant of alluvial land vesting in the <sup>4</sup>[Government].

<sup>1</sup>[63. When it appears to the Collector that any alluvial land, which vests under any law for the time being in force in <sup>5</sup>[the State Government], may with due regard to the interests of the public revenue be disposed of, he shall offer the same to the occupant (if any) of the bank or shore on which such alluvial land has formed.

<sup>6</sup>[The price of the land so offered shall be such as may be determined by the state Government.]

If the said occupant shall refuse the offer, the Collector may dispose of the land without any restrictions as to the price to be asked.

For the purpose of this section, notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, if the bank or shore has been mortgaged with possession, the mortgagor shall be deemed to be the occupant thereof.]

Temporary right to alluvial lands of small extent.

64. When alluvial land forms on any bank or shore, the occupant, if any, of such bank or shore shall be entitled to the temporary use <sup>7</sup>[**] thereof unless or until the area of the same exceeds <sup>8</sup>[one] acre <sup>9</sup>[* * *]. When the area of the alluvial land exceeds the said extent, it shall be at the disposal of the Collector subject to the provisions of the last preceding section.

2. These words were substituted the words "State Government may exempt" by notification in the official Gazette" by Guj. 3 of 2016, s. 5.

(b) is not so satisfied, he shall, after giving the occupant an opportunity of being heard, refuse to issue such certificate :

Provided that no such certificate shall be issued under clause (a) unless the conversion tax leviable under section 67A is paid.

(4) (a) Where the occupant fails to send the notice and other particulars under clause (b) of sub-section (2) within the period specified therein, he shall be liable to pay, in addition to the non-agricultural assessment leviable under this Act, such fine not exceeding ten thousand rupees as the Collector may, subject to rules made under this Act, direct.

(b) (i) Where the occupant commences the use of such land for industrial purpose despite the non-fulfilment of any of the conditions specified in sub-section (1), or

(ii) where certificate is refused to the occupant under clause (b) of sub-section (3), he shall be liable, in addition to the payment of non-agricultural assessment leviable under this Act, to restore such land to its original use within such period as the Collector may specify in a notice served on such occupant in this behalf.

(c) Where such occupant does not restore the land to its original use within the period specified by the Collector in the notice served under clause (b),—

(i) he shall be liable to pay such fine not exceeding five thousand rupees and in addition, such daily fine not exceeding one hundred rupees per hectare or part thereof of land not so restored for each day during which such land is not restored to its original use, after the expiry of the period specified in such notice as the Collector may, subject to rules made under this Act, direct, and

(ii) the Collector shall take such steps as he thinks fit to get such land restored to its original use and collect the cost incurred in this behalf from such occupant as an arrear of land revenue.

(5) (a) The occupant shall commence industrial activity on such land within three years from the date of the notice sent by him to the Collector under clause (b) of sub-section (2) and commence production of goods or providing of services on such land within five years from such date:

Provided that the period of three years or, as the case may be, five years may, on an application made by the occupant in that behalf, be extended from time to time by the Collector in such circumstances as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

(b) Where the occupant fails to commence industrial activity or production of goods or providing of services within the period specified in clause (a) or the period extended under the proviso to clause (a), he shall be liable to pay, in addition to non-agricultural assessment leviable under section 48, non-agricultural assessment at the rate of five rupees per square metre of the land with effect from the date of expiry of the period of three years or five years or, as the case may be, the period extended under the proviso to clause (a) till he commences industrial activity or, as the case may be, commences production of goods or providing of services.

<sup>1</sup>*[73AA. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 73, an occupancy of a person belonging to any of the Schedule Tribes (hereafter in this section and in section 73AB referred to as “(the tribal)” shall not be transferred to any person without the previous sanction of the Collector.

Restriction on transfer of occupancies of tribals to tribals or non-tribals.

(2) The previous sanction of the Collector under sub-section (1) may be given in such circumstances and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) (a) Where tribal transfers the possession of his occupancy to another tribal in contravention of sub-section (1), the tribal transferor or his successor in interest may, within two years of such transfer, apply to the collector that the possession of such occupancy may be restored to him and there upon the Collector shall, after issuing a notice to the transferee or his successor in interest, as the case may be, in the prescribed form to show cause why he should not be disentitled to retain possession of the occupancy and after holding such inquiry as he deems fit, declare that the transferee or his successor in interest shall not be entitled to retain possession of the occupancy and that the occupancy shall be restored to the tribal transferor or his successor in interest, as the case may be, on the same terms and conditions on which the transferor held it immediately before the transfer and subject to his acceptance of the liability for payment of arrears of land revenue in respect of such occupancy in accordance with the rules made by the State Government and that the transferee or his successor in interest as the case may be, shall be deemed to be unauthoriselly occupying the occupancy :

Provided that such declaration shall stand revoked if the tribal transferor, or, as the case may be, his successor in interest fails or refuses in writing to accept the restoration of the possession of such occupancy within the prescribed period.

(b) Where—

(i) a tribal in contravention of sub-section (1) of section 73A or of any other law for the time being in force has transferred his occupancy to another tribal at any time during the period commencing on the 4th April, 1961 and ending on the day immediately before the date of commencement of the Bombay Land Revenue (Gujarat Second Amendment) Act, 1980, and

(ii) the tribal transferee or his successor in interest has not been evicted from such occupancy under section 79A, the transfer of occupancy shall be valid, as if it were made with the previous sanction of the Collector under section 73A.

1. Sections 73AA, 73AB, 73AC and 73AD were inserted by Guj. 37 of 1980, s. 2.

* Amendment for Scheduled Areas :- Section 73AA in its application to the Scheduled Areas of the State as referred to in clause (1) of article 244 of the Constitution of India is amended by Guj. 5 of 1998, s. 2 as under :—

(1) in sub-sections (1) and (2), for the words “the Collector”, the words “the District Panchayat” shall be substituted;

(2) in sub-section (3), in clause (a),-

(a) for the words “occupancy to another tribal” the words “occupancy to any person” shall be substituted;

(b) for the words “the Collector”, occurring at two places, the words “the District Panchayat” shall be substituted;

(3) in sub-section (4), in clause (a), the words, brackets and figure “of sub-section (1) of this section, or” shall be deleted;

(4) in the Explanation, before clause (i), the following clause shall be inserted, namely :-

“(ia) “district panchayat” means a district panchayat of a district comprising of any Scheduled Areas of the State as referred to in clause (1) of article 244 of the Constitution of India, in which the occupancy of the tribal exists.”.

Guj. 37 of 1980.

(4) Where a tribal—

(a) in contravention of sub-section (1) of this section, or of sub-section (1) of section 73A or of any other law for the time being in force, transfers his occupancy to any person other than a tribal (hereafter in this section and in section 73AB referred to as “the non-tribal”) at any time on or after the date of commencement of the Bombay Land Revenue (Gujarat Second Amendment) Act, 1980 (hereinafter in this section referred to as “the said date”); or

Guj. 37 of

(b) in contravention of sub-section (1) of section 73A or of any other law for the time being in force has transferred his occupancy to a non-tribal at any time before the said date,

the Collector shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, either suo motu at any time, or on an application made by the tribal transferor or his successor in interest at any time within three years from the said date or the date of such transfer, whichever is later, after issuing a notice to the transferee or his successor in interest as the case may be, to show cause why the transfer should not be declared void and after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, declare the transfer of such occupancy to be void and thereupon the occupancy together with the standing crops thereon, if any, shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances.

(5) Where an occupancy is vested in the State Government under sub-section (4) and such occupancy was assessed or held for the purposes of agriculture immediately before its transfer by the tribal transferor, the Collector shall, after taking necessary action under sections 79A and 202, give notice to the tribal transferor or his successor in interest, as the case may be, requiring him to state in writing within ninety days from the date of receipt of such notice whether he is willing to purchase the occupancy and cultivate it personally, and if such tribal transferor or his successor in-interest agrees to purchase the occupancy and undertakes to cultivate it personally, it may be granted to him on payment of the prescribed occupancy price.

(6) If within the said period of ninety days the transferor or his successor in interest does not intimate his willingness to purchase the occupancy and to cultivate it personally, or fails to pay the occupancy price within such period as may be specified by the Collector, the occupancy shall be granted to any other tribal residing in the same village or in any other village situated within such distance from the village as may be prescribed, on the same conditions, including the payment of the occupancy price, as are specified in sub-section (5), and if he is not so willing, it shall be granted to other classes of persons in such order or priority at such occupancy price and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(7) Where any occupancy is transferred to a non-tribal in contravention of sub-section (1) such non-tribal shall, without prejudice to any other liability to which he may be subject, be liable to pay to the State Government, a penalty not exceeding three times the value of the occupancy such penalty and value to be determined by the Collector, and such determination shall be, final:

Provided that before levying any such penalty, the non-tribal shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(8) The penalty payable under sub-section (7) shall, if it is not paid within the time specified by the Collector, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

Explanation — For the purposes of this section,—

(i) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules under section 214;

(ii) “Scheduled Tribes” means such tribes or tribal communities or parts of or groups within such tribes or tribal communities as are deemed to be Scheduled Tribes in relation to the State of Gujarat under article 342 of the Constitution.

(iii) “to cultivate personally” shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (6) of section 2 of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948.

Bom. LXVI of 1948.

73AB. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 73 or in sub-section (1) of section 73AA or in any condition lawfully annexed to the tenure, but subject to the provision contained in section 35, it shall be lawful for an occupant to mortgage, or create a charge on his interest, in his occupancy in favour of the State Government in consideration of loan advanced to him by the State Government under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, the Agriculturists Loans Act, 1883 or the Bombay Non-Agriculturists’ Loans Act, 1928 as in force in the State of Gujarat or in favour of bank or a co-operative society, and without prejudice to any other remedy open to the State Government, bank or co-operative society, as the case may be, the event of his making default in the payment of such loan in accordance with the terms on which such loan was granted, it shall be lawful for the State Government, bank or a co-operative society, as the case may be, to cause his interest in the occupancy to be attached and sold and the proceeds to be applied in payment of such loan:

CHAPTER VII.

OF SUPERIOR AND INFERIOR HOLDERS.

Amount of rent payable by tenant.

83. A person placed, as tenant, in possession of land by another, or in that capacity, holding, taking or retaining possession of land permissively from or by sufferance of another shall be regarded as holding the same at the rent or for the services agreed upon between them ; or in the absence of satisfactory evidence of such agreement at the rent payable or services renderable by the usage of the locality, or, if there be no such agreement or usage, shall be presumed to hold at such rent as, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, shall be just and reasonable.

Duration of tenancy.

And where by reason of the antiquity of a tenancy, no satisfactory evidence of its commencement is forthcoming, and there is not any such evidence of the period of its intended duration, if any, agreed upon between the landlord and tenant, or those under whom they respectively claim title or any usage of the locality as to duration of such tenancy, it shall, as against the immediate landlord of the tenant, be presumed to be co-extensive with the duration of the tenure of such landlord and of those who derive title under him.

Presumption as to tenure.

And where there is no satisfactory evidence of the capacity in which a person in possession of land in respect of which he renders service or pays rent to the landlord receives, holds or retains possession of the same, it shall be presumed that he is in possession as tenant.

Saving clause.

Nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of the landlord (if he have the same either by virtue of agreement, usage or otherwise), to enhance the rent payable or services renderable by the tenant, or to evict the tenant for non-payment of the rent or non-rendition of the services, either respectively originally fixed or duly enhanced as aforesaid.

<sup>4</sup>[84A. (1) Whenever from any cause the payment of the whole or any part of the land revenue payable to <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government] by a superior holder in respect of any land is suspended or remitted, the Collector, acting under general or special orders of <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], may suspend or remit as the case may be, the payment to such superior holder of the rent or land revenue of such land by the inferior holder or holders to an amount which—

Order granting suspensions or remission to inferior holders.

(a) in the case of land in respect of which full assessment is payable to <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], shall not exceed double the amount of the land revenue of which the payment by such superior holder has been suspended or remitted by <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], and

(b) in the case of land in respect of which land revenue less than the full assessment is payable to <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], shall not exceed double the amount which, in the opinion of the Collector, would have been suspended or remitted by <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], in favour of the superior holder if the full assessment had been payable to <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], in respect of such land.

(2) In the case of land in respect of which no land revenue is payable to <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], by a superior holder, whenever from any cause the payment of the whole or any part of the land revenue payable to <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], in respect of any other land in the same neighbourhood has been suspended or remitted the collector acting under the general or special orders of <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government], may suspend or remit, as the case may be, payment, to such superior holder of the rent or land revenue of the first-mentioned land by the inferior holder or holders to an amount which shall not exceed double the amount which, in the opinion of the Collector, would have been suspended or remitted by <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government] in favour of the superior holder if the full assessment had been payable to <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government] in respect of such land.

(3) An order passed under sub-section (1) or under sub-section (2) shall not be questioned in any court.

Such order not to be questioned in any Court.

Consequences

(4) If the superior holder collects any rent or land revenue of which the payment has been remitted, or before the expiration of the period of suspension collects any rent or land revenue of which the payment has been suspended in favour of an inferior holder or holders, the whole of the land revenue remitted or suspended in favour of such superior holder shall, without prejudice to the rights of the inferior holder or holders to recover the rent or land revenue so collected, become immediately payable by the superior holder.

(5) No application for assistance under sections 86 and 87 shall be entertained, no suit shall lie, and no decree of a Civil Court shall be executed, for the recovery by a superior holder of any rent or land revenue of which the payment has been, remitted or during the period of suspension of any rent or land revenue of which the payment has been suspended in favour of an inferior holder or holders; but, where the payment of rent or land revenue by an inferior holder or holders has been suspended, the period during with the suspension has continued shall be excluded from the period of limitation prescribed for a suit for the recovery of such rent or land revenue.

Crop-share fixed by custom or agreement.

(6) Nothing in this section shall make it unlawful for the superior holder to take the crop-share fixed by custom or agreement in respect of any land on which rent is payable in whole or in part in the form of a share of the crop.

Meaning of assessment.

(7) Explanation—

In respect of land which has not been assessed under the provisions of <sup>1</sup>[this Act] the terms assessment, for the purposes of this section, includes the rent in land revenue payable by custom or by the usage of the locality.

holders' dues.

<sup>3</sup>[85. (1) Every superior holder of an alienated village or of an alienated share of a village, in which there are a hereditary patel and a <sup>4</sup>[Village Accountant] shall receive his dues on account of rent or land revenue, from the inferior holders through such patel and accountant.

(2) Where such patel and accountant fail to recover in behalf of such superior holder any sum due and payable to him on account of rent or land revenue, such superior holder shall, with the previous consent of the Collector, be entitled to recover his dues direct from the interior holders.

(3) Where any such patel or accountant has recovered any sum in behalf of such superior holder and fails to account to him for the same, the Collector, shall, on written application from the superior holder, recover such sum from such patel or accountant as an arrear of land revenue.

(4) Where any such superior holder demands or receives any rent or land revenue from any inferior holder otherwise than through such patel or accountant, he shall, on conviction in a summary inquiry before the Collector, be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount of the sum so demanded or received.]

CHAPTER VIII.

95. It shall be lawful for the <sup>2</sup>[ <sup>3</sup>[State] Government ] , whenever it may seem expedient, to direct the survey of any land in any part of the <sup>4</sup>[area to which this Act extends], with a view to the settlement of the land revenue, and to the record and preservation of rights connected therewith, or for any other similar purpose and such survey shall be called a revenue survey. Such survey may extend to the lands of any village, town, or city, generally, or to such land only as the <sup>2</sup>[ <sup>3</sup>[State] Government] may direct; and subject to the orders of the <sup>2</sup>[ <sup>3</sup>[State] Government] it shall be lawful for the officers conducting any such survey to except from the survey settlement any land to which it may not seem expedient that such settlement should be applied.

Revenue survey may be introduced by <sup>2</sup>[State] Government into any part of area to which this Act extends.

The control of every such revenue survey shall vest in and be exercised by the <sup>2</sup>[ <sup>3</sup>[State] Government ] .

Control of revenue survey.

96. It shall be lawful for the survey officer deputed to conduct or take part in any such survey, to require by general notice or by summons, the attendance of holders of lands and of all persons interested therein, in person, or by legally constituted agent duly instructed and able to answer all material questions and the persence of taluka and village officers, who in their several stations and capacities are legally, or by usage, bound to perform service in virtue of their respective offices and to require from them such assistance in the operations of the survey and such service in connection therewith, as may not be inconsistent with the position of the individual so called on.

Survey Officer may require by general notice or by summons, suitable service from holders of land, etc.

97. It shall be lawful for the survey officer to call upon all holders of land and other persons interested therein to assist in the measurement or classification of the lands to which the survey extends by furnishing flag holders; and in the event of necessity for employing hired labour for this or other similar object, incidental to survey operations, it shall be lawful to assess the cost thereof, with all contingent expenses on the lands surveyed, for collection as a revenue demand.

Assistance to be given by holders and others in the measurement or classification of lands.

98. Except as hereinafter provided, no survey number comprising land used for purposes of agriculture only shall be made of less extent than a minimum to be fixed from time to time for the several classes of land in each district by the Commissioner of Survey, with the sanction of <sup>5</sup>[the, <sup>6</sup>[State] Government ] . A record of the minima so fixed shall be kept in the Mamlatdar's office in each taluka, and shall be open to the inspection of the public at reasonable times.

Survey numbers not to be of less than a certain extent.

These provisions shall not apply to survey numbers which have already been made of less extent than the minima so fixed, or which may be so made under the authority of the Commissioner of Survey given either generally or in any particular instance in this behalf; and any survey number separately recognized in the <sup>7</sup>[land records] shall be deemed to have been authorizedly made whatever be its extent.

  7. This Chapter was inserted by Bom. 20 of 1939, s. 11.
  8. These words were substituted for the words “a taluka or part of a taluka” by Bom. 28 of 1956, s. 4(1).

<sup>1</sup>[(1A) “zone” means a local area comprising a taluka or a group of talukas or portions thereof of one or more districts, which in the opinion of the State Government or an officer authorised by it in this behalf, is contiguous and homogeneous in respect of—

- (i) physical configuration,
- (ii) climate and rainfall,
- (iii) principal crops grown in the area, and
- (iv) soil characteristics.]

(2) “Term of a settlement” means the period for which the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government has declared, that a settlement shall remain in force. Term of settlement.

(3) “Group” means all lands in <sup>3</sup>[a zone, which in the opinion of the State Government or an officer authorised by it in this behalf, ] are sufficiently homogeneous in respect of the factors enumerated in sub-section (2) of section 117G to admit of the application to them of the same standard rates for the purpose of assessment of land revenue. Group.

(4) “Classification value” means the relative valuation of land as recorded in the survey records having regard to its soil, water and other advantages. Classification value.

(5) “Standard rate” means, with reference to any particular class of land in a group <sup>4</sup>[the value of one sixteenth of the average yield of crops] per acre on land in that class of sixteen annas classification value. Standard rate.

(6) “Class of land “ means any of the following classes of land, namely, dry crop, rice or garden land. Class of land.

(7) “Rental value” means the consideration (including premia, if any, or any sum of money paid or promised, or a share of crops, <sup>5</sup> * * or any other thing of value rendered periodically or on specified occasions) for which land is or could be leased for a period of one year for its most advantageous use. Rental value.

(8) “Prescribed means prescribed by rules made under section 214. Prescribed.

117D. (1) The <sup>2</sup>[State] Government may at any time direct a settlement, hereinafter referred to as an original settlement, of the land revenue of any land of which a revenue survey has been made under section 95 <sup>6</sup>[or not]. Government may direct an original or revision settlement of land revenue of <sup>7</sup>[any lands].

(2) The <sup>2</sup>[State] Government may also direct at any time a fresh settlement, hereinafter referred to as a revision settlement, of the land revenue of such land:

  7. These words were substituted for the words “lands comprised in a revenue survey,” ibid., s. 5(2).

Provided that no enhancement of assessment shall take effect before the expiration of the settlement for the time being in force.

The term of settlement.

117E. A settlement shall remain in force for a period of 30 years :

Provided that in the case of any particular settlement, the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may, for reasons to be recorded, direct that the settlement shall remain in force for any period less than 30 years :

Provided further that, when in the opinion of the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government a revision settlement is inexpedient, or when the introduction of such settlement has, for any cause, been delayed, the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may extend the term of the settlement or the time being in force for such period as it may think fit.

117F. [Limits of enhancement of assessment.] Deleted by Bom. XXVIII of 1956, s. 6.

Assessment how determined.

117G. (1) The land revenue assessment on all lands in respect of which a settlement has been directed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 117D and which are not wholly exempt from the payment of land revenue shall, subject to the limitations contained in <sup>2</sup>[the first proviso to sub-section (1) of] section 52; be determined by dividing the lands to be settled into groups and fixing the standard rates for each group;

- (i) physical configuration,
- (ii) climate and rainfall,
- (iii) prices, and
- (iv) yield of principal crops :

Provided that if deemed necessary, the following factors may also be taken into consideration in forming the groups, namely :—

- (a) markets,
- (b) communications,
- (c) standard of husbandry,
- (d) population and supply of labour,
- (e) agricultural resources,
- (f) variations in the area of occupied and cultivated lands during the last 30 years,
- (g) wages,
- (h) ordinary expenses of cultivating principal crops, including the wages of the cultivator for his labour in cultivating the land,
- (i) sales of lands used for the purpose of agriculture. ]

4. Sub-section (2) was substituted for the original, ibid., s. 7(3).

(3) The land revenue assessment of individual survey numbers and sub-divisions shall be based on their classification value in the manner prescribed.

117H. If during 30 years immediately preceding the date on which the settlement for the time being in force expires any improvements have been effected in any land by or at the expense of the holder thereof, the increase <sup>1</sup>[in the average yield of crops] of such land due to the said improvements shall not be taken into account in fixing the revised assessment thereof.

Increase in <sup>2</sup> [average yield] due to improvements and at the expense of holders not to be taken into account.

117I. In making a settlement the Settlement Officer shall proceed as follows :—

Settlement Officer how to proceed for making a settlement.

(1) He shall hold enquiry in the manner prescribed by rules made under this Act.

(2) He shall divide the lands to be settled into groups.

(3) He shall ascertain in the prescribed manner the <sup>3</sup>[average yield of crops] of lands for the purposes of the settlement.

(4) He shall then fix standard rates for each class of land in each group on a consideration of <sup>4</sup>[the relevant factors as provided] in sub-section (2) of section 117G.

(5) He shall submit to the Collector a report, hereinafter called the settlement report, containing his proposals for the settlement.

117J. (1) After the settlement report has been submitted to the Collector, the Collector shall cause such report to be published in the prescribed manner.

Settlement report to be printed and published.

(2) There shall also be published in each village concerned in the regional language of such village a notice stating for each class of land in the village the existing standard rate and the extent of any increase or decrease proposed therein by the Settlement Officer. The notice shall also state that any person may submit to the Collector his objections in writing to the proposals contained in the settlement report within three months from the date of such notice.

117K. After taking into consideration such objections as may have been received by him, the Collector shall forward to the <sup>5</sup>[State] Government, through such officers as the <sup>5</sup>[State] Government may direct, the settlement report with his remarks thereon.

Reference to Revenue Tribunal.

117KK. Any person aggrieved by the report published by the Collector under section 117J may within two months from the date of notice under sub-section (2) of section 117J apply to the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government for reference to the <sup>2</sup>[Gujarat Revenue Tribunal constituted under the Bombay Revenue Tribunal Act, 1957]. On such person depositing such amount of costs as may be prescribed, the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government shall direct the report to be sent to the Revenue Tribunal for enquiry. The Revenue Tribunal after making an enquiry in the manner prescribed shall submit its own opinion on the objections raised and on such other matters as may be referred to it by the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government. The <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may make rules for the refund of the whole or any portion of the costs in such cases as it deems fit.

Settlement report to be laid on table of Legislature and copies to be supplied to the members <sup>5</sup>[thereof].

117L. (1) The settlement report together with the objections, if any, received thereon and the opinion of the Revenue Tribunal on a reference, if any, made to it under section 117KK shall be laid on the table of <sup>3</sup>[* * *] the <sup>1</sup>[State] Legislature and a copy thereof shall be sent to every member <sup>4</sup>[thereof]. The said report shall be liable to be discussed by a resolution moved in <sup>3</sup>[* * *] the <sup>1</sup>[State] Legislature at its next following session.

Orders on the Settlement Report.

(2) After the termination of such session the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may pass such orders as it may deem fit :

Provided that no increase in the standard rates proposed in the settlement report shall be made unless a fresh notice as provided in section 117J has been published in each village affected by such rates and objections received, if any, have been considered by the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government. The provisions of sub-section (1) shall, so far as may be, apply to orders to be passed regarding such increase.

(3) The orders passed by the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government under sub-section (2) shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court.

Power of State Government to place surcharge or grant rebate after every ten years.

<sup>6</sup>[117M. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, it shall be lawful for the State Government in any year, after the expiry of every ten years from the date on which the settlement was introduced under section 117O, to enhance or reduce the assessment on lands in any zone, by placing a surcharge, or granting a rebate, on the assessment by reference to the alteration of the prices of the principal crops in such zone.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), the prices of principal crops shall be recorded and published in the Official Gazette.

(3) The surcharge shall be levied or the rebate shall be granted under sub-section (1) according to the scale prescribed by rules made in this behalf.]

Power to Government to exempt from assessment for water advantages.

117N. (1) The <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may at the time of passing orders under sub-section (2) of section 117L exempt any land from assessment under this Chapter for any advantage or specified kind of advantage accruing to it from water.

(2) The <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may at any time during the term of the settlement, after publishing a notice in the village concerned in the regional language of such village and after the expiry of a period of six months from the date of the publication of such notice, withdraw any exemption granted by it under sub-section (1) and direct that such land shall be assessed for such advantage.

117O. After the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government has passed orders under section 117L and notice of the same has been given in the prescribed manner the settlement shall be deemed to have been introduced and the land revenue according to such settlement shall be levied from such date as the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may direct :

Introduction of settlement.

Provided that in the year in course of which a survey settlement, whether original or revised, may be introduced under this section, the difference between the old and new the assessment of all lands on which the latter may be in excess of the former shall be remitted and the revised assessment shall be levied only from the next following year :

Provided further that in the year next following that in which any original or revised survey settlement has been introduced any occupant who may be dissatisfied with the increased rate imposed by such new assessment on any of the survey numbers or sub-divisions of survey numbers held by him shall, on relinquishing such number or sub-division in the manner prescribed by section 74 on or before the 31st March, receive a remission of the increase so imposed.

117P. Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to prevent the Settlement Officer from determining and registering the proper full assessment on lands wholly exempt from the payment of land revenue.

Assessment of lands wholly exempt from payment of land revenue.

117Q. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may direct at the time of passing orders under sub-section (2) of section 117L that any land in respect of which a settlement is made under this Chapter shall be liable to be assessed to additional land revenue during the term of the settlement for additional advantages accruing to it from water received on account of irrigation works or improvements in existing irrigation works completed after the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government has directed the settlement under section 117D and not effected by or at the expense of the holder of the land. Such land revenue shall be leviable only when no rate in respect of such additional advantages is levied under the Bombay Irrigation Act, 1879:

Power to Government to direct assessment for water advantages.

Bom. VII of 1879.

Provided that the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government shall, before making such direction, publish a notice in this behalf in the village concerned in the regional language of such village and shall consider the objections, if any, received to the proposal contained therein and no such direction shall be issued until after the expiry of a period of six months from the date of publication of such notice.

117R. All settlement of land revenue heretofore made and introduced and in force at the date of the commencement of the Bombay Land Revenue Code (Amendment) Act, 1939, shall be deemed to have been made and introduced in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter and shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 117E, be deemed to continue to remain in force until the introduction of a revision settlement.]

Settlement made before this Act to be deemed to be made under this Chapter.

CHAPTER IX.

THE SETTLEMENT OF BOUNDARIES AND THE CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE OF BOUNDARY-MARKS.

Determination of village boundaries.

118. The boundaries of villages situated in <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[area to which this Act extends ] shall be fixed, and all disputes relating thereto shall be determined by survey officers, or by such other officers as may be nominated by <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[State] Government] for the purpose, who shall be guided by the following rules.

Village boundaries may be settled by agreement.

Rule 1.— When the patels and other village officers of any two or more adjoining villages and, in the case of an alienated village the holder thereof or his duly constituted agent, shall voluntarily agree to any given line of boundary as the boundary common to their respective villages, the officer determining the boundary shall require the said parties to execute and agreement to that effect, and shall then mark off the boundary in the manner agreed upon. And any village boundary fixed in this manner shall be held to be finally settled, unless it shall appear to the said officer that the agreement has been obtained by fraud, intimidation, or any other illegal means.

Procedure in case of disagreement or dispute.

Rule 2.— If the Patels and other village officers, and, in the case of an alienated village, the holder thereof or his duly constituted agent, do not agree to fix the boundaries of their respective villages, in the manner prescribed in the preceding rule, or if it shall appear to the said officer that the agreement has been obtained by fraud, intimidation, or any other illegal means, or if there be any pending dispute, the said officer shall make, a survey and plan of the ground in dispute, exhibiting the land claimed by the contending parties, and all particulars relating thereto, and shall hold a formal inquiry into the claims of the said parties, and thereafter make an award in the case. If either of the villages concerned be alienated, an award made by a survey officer shall, unless the officer making it be the Superintendent of Survey, be subject to his confirmation and an award made by any other officer shall be subject to confirmation by such other officer as <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[State] Government] may nominate for the purpose.

Determination of field boundaries.

119. If at the time of a survey, the boundary of a field or holding be undisputed, and its correctness be affirmed by the village officers then present, it may be laid down as pointed out by the holder or person in occupation, and, if disputed, or if the said holder or person in occupation be not present, it shall be fixed by the survey officer according to the <sup>5</sup>[land records] and according to occupation as ascertained from the village officers and the holders of adjoining lands, or on such other evidence or information as the survey officer may be able to procure.

If any dispute arise concerning the boundary of a field or holding which has not been surveyed, or if at any time <sup>6</sup>[after the completion of a survey] a dispute arise concerning the boundary of any survey number <sup>7</sup>[or sub-division of survey number], it shall be determined by the Collector, who shall be guided <sup>8</sup>[by the land records] if they afford satisfactory evidence of the boundary previously fixed, and if not, by such other evidence as he may be able to procure.

8. These words were substituted for the words "in the case of survey numbers by the survey records", ibid.

120. If the several parties concerned in a boundary dispute agree to submit the settlement thereof to an arbitration committee, and make application to that effect in writing, the officer whose duty it would otherwise be to determine the boundary shall require the said parties, to nominate a committee of not less than three persons, within a specified time, and if within a period to be fixed by the said officer the committee so nominated or a majority of the members thereof arrive at a decision, such decision, when confined by the said officer, or if the said officer be a Survey officer lower in rank than a Superintendent of Survey, by the Superintendent of Survey, shall be final :

Settlement of boundary disputes by arbitration.

Provided that the said officer, or the Superintendent of Survey shall have power, to remit the award, or any of the matters referred to arbitration, to the reconsideration of the same committee, for any of the causes set forth in <sup>1</sup>[section 16 of the Arbitration Act, 1940].

When award may be remitted for reconsideration.

If the committee appointed in the manner aforesaid fail to effect a settlement of the dispute within the time specified, it shall be the duty of the officer aforesaid, unless he or, if the said officer is a survey officer lower in rank than a Superintendent of Survey, the Superintendent of Survey see fit to extent the time, to settle the same as otherwise provided in this Act.

If arbitration fail, survey officer to settle dispute.

121. <sup>2</sup>[(1)] The settlement of a boundary under any of the foregoing provisions of this chapter shall be determinative—

Effect of the settlement of a boundary.

(a) of the proper position of the boundary line or boundary marks, and

(b) of the rights of the landholders on either side of the boundary fixed in respect of the land adjudged to appertain, or not to appertain, to their respective holdings.

<sup>3</sup>[(2) Where a boundary has been so fixed, the Collector may at any time summarily evict any landholder who is wrongfully in possession of any land which has been adjudged in the settlement of boundary not to appertain to his holding or to the holding of any person through or under whom he claims.]

122. It shall be lawful for any survey officer, authorised by a Superintendent of Survey or Settlement Officer, to <sup>4</sup>[specify or cause to be constructed, laid out, maintained or repaired ] boundary marks of villages of survey numbers <sup>5</sup>[ or sub-divisions of survey numbers ] whether cultivated or uncultivated, and to assess all charges incurred thereby on the holders or others having an interest therein.

Construction and repair of boundary marks of survey numbers and villages.

Such officer may require landholders to construct, <sup>6</sup>[ lay out, maintain] or repair their boundary-marks, by a notification which shall be posted in the chavdi or other public place in the village, to which the lands under survey belong directing the holders of survey numbers <sup>7</sup>[or sub-divisions] to construct, <sup>6</sup>[lay out, maintain] or repair, within a specified time, the boundary-marks of their respective survey numbers <sup>7</sup>[or sub-divisions] and on their failure to comply with the requisition so made, the survey officer shall then construct, <sup>6</sup>[lay out] or repair them and assess all charges incurred thereby as hereinbefore provided.

125R. For carrying out the purposes of this chapter, the Settlement Commissioner shall prescribe various registers, forms, formats etc.

Power of Settlement Commissioner to prescribe registers, forms etc.

125S. The State Government may, on being satisfied that the supplemental revenue settlement in whole or part of the transitional area is substantially complete, it may direct the Collector to take such action, in respect of such area, under section 118 or, as the case may be, section 126, as it may deem necessary.

Direction to Collector.

125T. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other State Act, the provisions of this Chapter shall have overriding effect.

Chapter IX-A to have overriding effect.

Power to remove difficulties.

125U. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of the amending Act of 2017, the State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of three years from the commencement of the amending Act of 2017

(2) No order made under sub-section (1) shall be questioned in any Court of law on the ground that no difficulty, as referred to in the said sub-section, existed.

(3) Every order made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be, after it is made, before the State Legislature.”.

CHAPTER X.*OF LANDS WITHIN THE SITES OF VILLAGES, TOWNS AND CITIES

Limits of sites of villages, towns and cities how to be fixed.

126. It shall be Lawful for the Collector or for a survey officer, acting under the general or special orders of <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government], to determine what lands are included within the site of any village, town, or city, and to fix, and from time to time to vary the limits of the same, respect being had to all subsisting rights of landholders.

Act XI of 1852 and Bombay Acts II and VII of 1863 how far applicable to lands in such sites.

127. Act XI of 1852 and Bombay Acts II and VII of 1863 shall be deemed to be applicable, and to have always been applicable, in the territories to which they respectively extend, to all lands within the limits of the site of any town or city in which an inquiry into titles has been made under the provisions of Bombay Act IV of 1868, <sup>3</sup>which have been hitherto ordinarily used for agricultural purposes only; but the provisions of the said Acts shall not be deemed applicable to any other lands within the limits of the site of any such town or city.

CHAPTER XI.

OF THE REALIZATIONS OF THE LAND REVENUE AND OTHER REVENUE DEMANDS.

Liability for land revenue.

<sup>2</sup>[136. (1) In the case of unalienated land the occupant and in the case of alienated land the superior holder, shall be primarily liable to <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[State] Government] for the payment of the land revenue, including all arrears of land revenue, due in respect of the land. joint occupants and joint holders who are primarily liable under this section shall be jointly and severally liable :

<sup>5</sup>[Provided that in the case of any land in the possession of a tenant, if such tenant is liable to pay land revenue in respect of such land under the provisions of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948, <sup>6</sup>[or as the case may be, the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Vidarbha Region and Kutch Area) Act, 1958] such tenant shall be primarily liable for the payment of the land revenue in respect of such land ].

Bom. XIX of

Bom. LXVII of 1948.

(2) In case of default by any person who is primarily liable under this section the land revenue, including arrears as aforesaid, shall be recoverable from any person in possession of the land:

1. Sections 135 S, 135 T and explanation were added, by Guj. 9 of 1995, s. 9.
  2. Section 136 was substituted by Bom. 4 of 1913, s. 67.
  3. The words “the Provincial Government” were substituted for the word “Government” by the Adaptation of Indian Order in Council.
  4. This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
  5. This Proviso was added by Bom. LXVII of 1948, s. 90, read with Bom. 1 of 1956.
  6. These words and figures were inserted by Guj. 35 of 1965, s. 11.

Provided that where such person is a tenant, the amount recoverable from him shall not exceed the demands of the year in which the recovery is made :

Provided further that, when land revenue is recovered under this section from any person who is not primarily liable for the same, such person shall be allowed credit for any payments which he may have duly made to the person who is primarily liable, and shall be entitled to credit, for the amount recovered from him, in account with the person who is primarily liable.]

137. The claim of <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government] to any moneys recoverable under the provisions of this Chapter, shall have precedence over any other debt, demand, or claim whatsoever, whether in respect of mortgage, judgement-decree, execution or attachment, or otherwise howsoever, against any land or the holder thereof.

Claims of <sup>2</sup>[State] Government to have precedence over all others.

138. In all cases the land revenue for the current years of land used for agricultural purposes, if not otherwise discharged shall be recoverable, in preference to all other claims, from the crop of the land subject to the same.

The liability of the crop for the revenue of the land.

139. The land revenue shall be leviable on or at any time after the first day of the revenue year for which it is due; but, except when precautionary measures are deemed necessary under the provisions of sections 140 to 144, payment will be required only on the dates to be fixed under the provisions hereinafter contained.

Land revenue may belevied at any time during the revenue year.

<sup>3</sup>[140. When the crop of any land or any portion of the same is sold, mortgaged or otherwise disposed of, whether by order of a Civil Court or other public authority or by private agreement, the Collector may prevent its being removed from the land until the demands for the current year in respect of the said land have been paid, whether the date fixed for the payment of the same under the provisions hereinafter contained, has yet arrived or not.

Removal of crop which has been sold, etc., may be prevented until revenue paid.

But in no case shall a crop or any portion of the same, which has been sold, mortgaged or otherwise disposed of, be detained on account of more than the demands of the year in which the detention is made.]

141. It shall be lawful for the Collector in order to secure the payment of the land revenue by enforcement of the lien of <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government] on the crop—

In order to secure the land revenue the Collector may prevent the reaping of the crop, or.

(a) to require that the crop growing on any land liable to the payment of land revenue shall not be reaped until a notice in writing has first been given to himself or to some other officer to be named by him, in this behalf, and such notice has been returned endorsed with an acknowledgement of its receipt;

(b) to direct that no such crop shall be removed from the land on which it has been reaped, or from any place in which it may have been deposited, without the written permission of himself or of some other officer as aforesaid;

the removal thereof, or

(c) to cause watchmen to be placed over any such crop to prevent the unlawful reaping or removal of the same, and to realize the amount required for the remuneration of the said watchmen, at such rate not exceeding the rate of pay received by the peons on his establishment he may deem fit, as an arrear of land revenue due in respect of the land to which such crop belongs.

2. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Law Order, 1950.

3. Section 140 was substituted by Bom. 4 of 1913, s. 68.

Collector's orders under last section how to be made known.

142. The Collector's orders under either clause (a) or clause (b) of the last preceding section may be issued generally to all the holders of land paying revenue to <sup>1</sup>[<sup>2</sup>[State] Government] in a village or to individual holders merely.

If the order be general, it shall be made known by public proclamation to be made by beat of drum in the village and by affixing a copy of the order in the chavdi or some other public building in the village. If it be to individual holders, a notice thereof shall be served on each holder concerned.

Penalty for disobedience of order.

Any person who shall disobey any such order after the same has been so proclaimed, or a notice thereof has been served upon him or, who shall within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, abet the disobedience of any such order, shall be liable, on conviction after a summary inquiry by the Collector, to a fine not exceeding double the amount of the land revenue due on the land to which the crop belongs in respect of which the offence is committed.

XLV of 1860.

Reaping, etc., not to be unduly deferred.

143. The Collector shall not defer the reaping of the crop, nor prolong its deposit unduly, so as to damage the produce; and if within two months after the crop has been deposited the revenue due has not been discharged, he shall either release the crop and proceed to realize the revenue in any other manner authorised by this Chapter or take such portion thereof as he may deem fit, for sale under the provisions of this Chapter applicable to sales of movable property in realization of the revenue due and of all legal costs, and release the rest.

Crop when to be released.

Temporary attachment and management of a village or share of a village.

144. If owing to disputes amongst the sharers, or for other cause, the Collector shall deem that there is reason to apprehend that the land revenue payable in respect of any holding consisting of an entire village or of a share of a village will not be paid as it falls due, he may cause the village or share of a village to be attached and taken under the management of himself or any agent whom he appoints for that purpose.

Powers of Manager, and disposal of surplus profits.

The provisions of section 160 shall apply to any village or share of a village so attached, and all surplus profits of the land attached, beyond the cost of such attachment and management, including the payments of the land revenue and the cost of the introduction of a revenue survey, if the same be introduced under the provisions of section 111, shall be kept in deposit for the eventual benefit of the persons or persons entitled to the same, or paid to the said person or persons from time to time as the Collector <sup>3</sup>[* * * *] may direct.

Precautionary measures to be relinquished on security being furnished.

145. The precautionary measures authorised by the last five sections shall be relinquished if the person primarily responsible for the payment of revenue or any person who would be responsible for the same if default were made by the person primarily responsible shall pay the costs, if any, lawfully incurred by the Collector upto the time to such relinquishment, and shall furnish security satisfactory to the Collector for the payment, of the revenue, at the time at which or in the instalments, if any, in which, it is payable under the provisions hereinafter contained.

<sup>2</sup>[State] Government to determine the dates, etc., on which land revenue shall be payable.

146. Land revenue, except when it is recovered under the provisions of the foregoing sections 140 to 144, shall be payable at such times, in such instalments, to such persons and at such places as may from time to time be determined by the orders of <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government].

1. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the word "Government", by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

2. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

3. The words "subject to the orders of the commissioner" were repealed by section 2(2) of the Bombay Repealing and Amending Act, 1905 (Bom. 4 of 1905).

147. Any sum not so paid becomes thereupon an arrear of land revenue, and the persons responsible for it, whether under the provisions of section 136 or of any other section, become defaulters.

Arrear defaulters.

<sup>1</sup>[148. If any instalments of land revenue be not fully paid within the prescribed time, it shall be lawful for the Collector to impose as a penalty, or as interest such charge on such instalments, and on the arrears, if any of former years, as may be authorized according to a scale to be fixed from time to time under the orders of the <sup>2</sup>[<sup>3</sup>[State] Government], and further to proceed to levy at once the entire balance of land revenue due by the defaulter for the current year:

Liabilities incurred by default.

Provided that no such charge shall be imposed on any instalment, the payment of which has been suspended by order of <sup>4</sup>[ the <sup>3</sup>[State] Government], in respect of the period during which the payment remained suspended. ]

149. A statement of account, certified by the Collector or by an Assistant or Deputy Collector, shall, for the purposes of this Chapter, be conclusive evidence of the existence of the arrear of the amount of land revenue due, and of the person who is the defaulter.

Certified account to be evidence as to arrears.

On receipt of such certified statement, it shall be lawful for the Collector of one district to proceed to recover the demands of the Collector of any other district under the provisions of this chapter as if the demand arose in his own district.

Collectors may realize each other's demands.

150. An arrear of land revenue may be recovered by the following processes—

Process for recovery of arrears.

- (a) by serving a written notice of demand on the defaulter under section 152;
- (b) by forfeiture of the occupancy or alienate holding in respect of which the arrear is due under section 153;
- (c) by distraint and sale of the defaulter's movable property under section 154;
- (d) by sale of the defaulter's immovable property under section 155;
- (e) by arrest and imprisonment of the defaulter under sections 157 and 158;
- (f) in the case of alienated holding consisting of entire villages, or shares of villages, by attachment of the said villages or shares of villages under sections 159 to 163.

151. The said processes may be employed for the recovery of arrears of former years as well as of the current year, but the preferences given by sections 137 and 138 shall apply only to demands for the current year:

Revenue demands of former years how recoverable.

5. Third paragraph was omitted by the Gujarat Adaptation of laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.

Proviso

Provided that any process commenced in the current year shall be entitled to the said preferences, notwithstanding that it may not be fully executed within that year.

When notice of demand may issue.

152. A notice of demand may be issued on or after the day following that on which the arrear accrues.

The <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may from time to time frame rules for the issue of such notices, and <sup>2</sup>[ * * ] shall fix the costs recoverable from the defaulter as an arrear of revenue, and direct by what officer such notices shall be issued.

The occupancy or alienated holding for which arrear is due may be forfeited.

153. The Collector may declare the occupancy or alienated holding in respect of which an arrear of land revenue is due, to be forfeited to <sup>3</sup>[ the <sup>4</sup>[State] Government], and sell or otherwise dispose of the same under the provisions of sections 56 and 57, and credit the proceeds, if any, to the defaulter's accounts:

Proviso.

<sup>5</sup>[ Provided that the Collector shall not declare any such occupancy or alienated holding to be forfeited—

(a) unless previously thereto he shall have issued a proclamation and written notices of the intended declaration in the manner prescribed by sections 165 and 166 for sales of immovable property, and

(b) until after the expiration of at least fifteen days from the latest date on which any of the said notices shall have been affixed as required by section 166.]

Distrain and sale of defaulter's movable property.

154. The Collector may also cause the defaulter's movable property to be distrained and sold.

By whom to be made.

Such distraints shall be made by such officers or class of officers as the <sup>6</sup>[Collector] under the orders of <sup>3</sup>[ the <sup>4</sup>[State] Government ] may from time to time direct.

Sale of defaulter's immovable property.

155. The Collector may also cause the right, title and interest of the defaulter in any immovable property other than the land on which the arrears is due to be sold.

Exemption from distraint and sale.

156. All such property as is by the Civil Procedure Code exempted from attachment or sale in execution of a decree, shall also be exempt from distraint or sale, under either of the last two preceding sections.

V of 1908.

The Collector's decision as to what property is so entitled to exemption shall be conclusive.

Arrest and detention of defaulter.

<sup>7</sup>[ 157. (1) At any time after an arrear becomes due, the defaulter (not being an agriculturist from whom such arrear in respect of his occupancy is due) may be arrested and detained in custody for ten days in the office of the Collector or of a Mamlatdar unless the revenue dues together with the penalty or interest and the cost of arrest and of notice of demand, if any, and the cost of his subsistence during detention is sooner paid:

6. This word was substituted for the word "Commissioner" by Bom. 28 of 1950, Sch.
7. Section 157 was substituted for the original by Guj. 6 of 1995, s.2.

Provided that no such arrest shall be made unless the default is wilful and the defaulter is given an opportunity to show cause against his arrest and detention.

(2) If, on the expiry of ten days the amount due by the defaulter is not paid, then, or if the Collector deems fit on any earlier day, he may be sent by the Collector with a warrant, in the form of Schedule C for imprisonment in the civil jail of the district:

Provided that no defaulter shall be detained in imprisonment for a longer period than the time limited by law in the case of the execution of a decree of civil court for a debt equal in amount to the arrear of revenue due by such defaulter. ]

158. <sup>1</sup>[ The State Government may ] from time to time, declare by what officers, or class of officers, the powers of arrest conferred by section 157 may be exercised, and also fix the costs of arrest and the amount of subsistence money to be paid by [ the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government ] to any defaulter under detention or imprisonment.

Power of arrest by whom to be exercised.

159. If the holding, in respect of which an arrear is due, consists of an entire village, or of a share of a village, and the adoption of any of the other processes before specified is deemed inexpedient, the Collector may with the previous sanction of the <sup>4</sup>[State Government] cause such village or share of a village to be attached and taken under the management of himself or any agent whom he appoints for that purpose.

Power to attach defaulter's village, and take it under management.

160. The lands of any village or share of a village so attached shall revert to <sup>5</sup>[ the <sup>6</sup>[Government] ] unaffected by the acts of the superior holder or of any of the shares, or by any charges or liabilities subsisting against such lands, or against such superior holder or shares as are interested therein, so far as the public revenue is concerned, but without prejudice in other respects to the rights of individuals ;

Lands of such village to revert free of incumbrances.

and the Collector or the agent so appointed shall be entitled to manage the lands attached, and to receive all rents and profits accruing therefrom to the exclusion of the superior holder or any of the shares thereof, until the Collector restores the said superior holder to the management thereof.

Powers of Manager.

161. All surplus profits of the lands attached, beyond the cost of such attachment and management, including the payment of the current revenue, and the cost of the introduction of a revenue survey, if the same be introduced under the provisions of section 111 <sup>7</sup>[* * * * *] shall be applied in defraying the said arrear.

Application of surplus profits.

162. The village or share of a village so attached shall be released from attachment, and the management thereof shall be restored to the superior holder on the said superior holder's making an application to the Collector for that purpose at any time within twelve years from the first of August next after the attachment—

Restoration of village so attached.

if at the time that such application is made it shall appear that the arrear has been liquidated ; or if the said superior holder shall be willing to pay the balance, if any still due by him, and shall do so within such period as the Collector may prescribe in that behalf.

Disposal of surplus receipts.

The Collector shall make over to the superior holder the surplus receipts, if any, which have accrued in the year in which his application for restoration of the village or share of a village is made after defraying all arrears and costs; but such surplus receipts, if any, or previous years shall be at the disposal of <sup>1</sup>[ the <sup>2</sup>[ State] Government ].

Village, etc., to vest in <sup>3</sup>[the State Government] if not redeemed within twelve years.

163. If no application be made for the restoration of a village or portion of a village so attached within the said period of twelve years, or if, after such application has been made, the superior holder shall fail to pay the balance, if any, still due by him within the period prescribed by the Collector in this behalf, the said village or portion of a village shall thence forward vest in <sup>3</sup>[ the State Government ] free from all incumbrances created by the superior holder or any of the shares or any of his or their predecessors-in-title, or in anywise subsisting as against such superior holder or any of the shares, but without prejudice to the rights of the <sup>4</sup>[ persons in actual possession of the land ].

But all porcesses to be stayed on security being given.

164. Any defaulter detained in custody, or imprisoned, shall forthwith be set, at liberty and the execution of any process shall, at any time, be stayed, on the defaulter's giving before the Collector or other person nominated by him for the purpose, or if the defaulter is in jail, before the officer in charge of such jail, security in the form of Schedule D, satisfactory to the collector, or to such other person or officer.

or on amount demanded being paid under protest.

And any person against whom proceedings are taken under this Chapter may pay the amount claimed under protest to the officer taking such proceedings, and upon such payment the proceedings shall be stayed.

Procedure in effecting sales.

165. When any sale of either movable or immovable property is ordered under the provisions of this Chapter, the Collector shall issue a proclamation, in the vernacular language of the district, of the intended sale, specifying the time and place of sale, and in the case of movable property whether the sale is subject to confirmation or not, and, when land paying revenue to <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government ], is to be sold, the revenue assessed upon it, together with any other particulars he may think necessary.

Proclamation of sales.

Such proclamation shall be made by beat of drum at the head-quarters of the taluka, and in the village in which the immovable property is situate, if the sale be of immovable property; if the sale be of movable property the proclamation shall be made in the village in which such property was seized, and in such other places as the Collector may direct.

1. The words "the Provincial Government" were substituted for the word " Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

2. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

3. These words were substituted for the words "the Crown for the purposes of the Province" ibid.

4. These words were substituted for the words "actual occupants of the soil" by Bom. 4 of 1913, s. 70.

166. A written notice of the intended sale of immovable property, and of the time and place thereof, shall be affixed in each of the following places, viz., the office of the Collector of the district, the office of Mamlatdar or Mahalkari of the taluka or mahal in which the immovable property is situate, the chavdi or some other public building in the village in which it is situate, and the defaulter's dwelling-place.

Notification of sales.

In the case of movable property, the written notice shall be affixed in the Mamlatdar's or Mahalkari's office, and in the chavdi or some other public building in the village in which such property was seized.

The Collector may also cause notice of any sale, whether of movable or immovable property, to be published in any other manner that he may deem fit.

167. Sales shall be made by auction by such persons as the Collector may direct.

Sale by whom to be made.

No such sale shall take place on a Sunday or other general holiday recognized by<sup>1</sup>[ the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government], nor until after the expiration of at least thirty days in the case of immovable property, or seven days in the case of movable property, from the latest date on which any of the said notices shall have been affixed as required by the last preceding section.

Time when sale may be made.

The sale may from time to time be postponed for any sufficient reason.

Postponement of sale.

168. Nothing in the last three sections applies to the sale of perishable articles. such articles shall be sold by auction with the least possible delay, in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be made by the Collector either generally or specially in that behalf.

Sale of perishable articles.

169. If the defaulter, or any person on his behalf, pay the arrear in respect of which the property is to be sold and all other charges legally due by him at any time before the day fixed for the sale, to the person appointed under section 146 to receive payment of the land revenue due, or to the officer appointed to conduct the sale or if he furnishes security under section 164, the sale shall be stayed.

When sale may be stayed.

170. Sales of perishable articles shall be at once finally concluded by the officer conducting such sales. All other sales of movable property shall be finally concluded by the officer conducting such sales, or shall be subject to confirmation, as may be directed in orders to be made by the Collector either generally or specially in that behalf. In the case of sales made subject to confirmation, the Collector shall direct by whom such sales may be confirmed.

Sales of movable property when liable to confirmation.

171. When the sale is finally concluded by the officer conducting the same, the price of every lot shall be paid for at the time of sale, or as soon as after the said officer shall direct, and in default of such payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold. On payment of the purchase-money the officer holding the sale shall grant a receipt for the same, and the sale shall become absolute as against all persons whomsoever.

Mode of payment for movable property when sale is concluded at once.

2. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

Ditto when sale is subject to confirmation.

172. When the sale is subject to confirmation, the party who is declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately twenty-five per centum on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold. The full amount of purchase money shall be paid by the purchaser before sunset of the day after he is informed of the sale having been confirmed, or, if the said day be a Sunday or other authorized holiday, then before sunset of the first office day after such day. On payment of such full amount of the purchase-money, the purchaser shall be granted, a receipt for the same, and the sale shall become absolute as against all persons whomsoever.

Deposit by purchaser in case of sale of immovable property.

173. In all cases of sale of immovable property, the party who is declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately twenty five per centum on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be again put up and sold.

Purchase-money when to be paid.

174. The full amount of purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before sunset of the fifteenth day from that on which the sale of the immovable property took place, or if the said fifteenth day be a Sunday or other authorized holiday, then before sunset of the first office day after fifteenth day.

Effect of default.

175. In default of payment within the prescribed period of the full amount of purchase-money, whether of movable or immovable property the deposit, after defraying thereout the expenses of the sale, shall be forfeited to <sup>1</sup>[ the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government ], and the property shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

Liability of purchaser for loss by re-sale.

176. If the proceeds of the sale, which is eventually made, be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be recoverable from him by the Collector as an arrear of land revenue.

Notification before resale.

177. Every re-sale of property in default of payment of the purchase-money, or after postponement of the first sale, shall, except when such re-sale takes place forthwith, be made after the issue of a fresh notice in the manner prescribed for original sales.

Application to set aside sale.

178. At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale of immovable property application may be made to the Collector to set aside the sale on the ground of some material irregularity, or mistake, or fraud, in publishing or conducting it ;

But, except as is otherwise provided in the next following section, no sale shall be set aside on the ground of any such irregularity or mistake, unless the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that he has sustained substantial injury by reason thereof.

If the application be allowed, the Collector shall set aside the sale, and direct a fresh one.

Order confirming or setting aside sale.

179. On the expiration of thirty days from the date of the sale, if no such application as is mentioned in the last preceding section has been made, or if such application has been made and rejected, the Collector shall make an order confirming the sale :

Provided that, if he shall have reason to think that the sale ought to be set aside notwithstanding that no such application has been made, or on grounds other than those alleged in any application which has been made and rejected, he may, after recording his reasons in writing, set aside the sale.

1 The words "the Provincial Government" were substituted for the word "Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

2. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

180. Whenever the sale of any property is not confirmed, or is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his deposit or his purchase-money, as the case may be.

Refund of deposit or purchase-money when sale set aside.

181. After a sale of any occupancy or alienated holding has been confirmed in manner aforesaid, the Collector shall put the person declared to be the purchaser into possession of the land <sup>1</sup>[* * *] and shall cause his name to be entered in the <sup>2</sup>[land records] as occupant or holder in lieu of that of the defaulter, and shall grant him a certificate to the effect that he has purchased the <sup>3</sup>[land] to which the certificate refers.

On confirmation of sale, purchaser to be put in possession. Certificate of purchase.

182. The certificate shall state the name of the person declared at the time of sale to be the actual purchaser; and any suit brought in a Civil Court against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person not the certified purchaser, though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed.

Bar of suit against certified purchaser.

183. When any sale of movable property under this Chapter has become absolute, and when any sale of immovable property has been confirmed, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied to defraying the expenses of the sale and to the payment of any arrears due by the defaulter at the date of the confirmation of such sale, and recoverable as an arrear of land revenue, and the surplus ( if any ) shall be paid to the person whose property has been sold.

Application of proceeds of sale.

The expenses of the sale shall be estimated at such rates and according to such rules as may from time to time be sanctioned by <sup>4</sup>[* * *] <sup>5</sup>[the <sup>6</sup>[State] Government].

Expenses of sale how calculated.

184. The said surplus shall not, except under an order of a Civil Court, be payable to any creditor of the person whose property has been sold.

Surplus not to be paid to creditors, except under order of Court.

<sup>7</sup>[185. Notwithstanding anything in section 136, the person named in the certificate of title as purchaser shall not be liable for land-revenue due in respect of the land for any period previous to the date of the sale.]

Certified purchaser liable only for land revenue subsequently due.

186. If any claim shall be set up by a third person to movable property attached under the provisions of this Chapter, the Collector shall admit or reject his claim on a summary inquiry held after reasonable notice. If the claim be admitted wholly or partly, the property shall be dealt with accordingly. Except in so far as it is admitted, the property shall be sold and the title of the purchaser shall be good for all purposes, and the proceeds shall be disposable as herein before directed.

Claims to attached movable property how to be disposed of.

187. <sup>8</sup>[All sums due on account of land revenue, conversion tax ], all quit-rents, nazranas, succession duties, transfer duties and forfeitures, and all cesses, profits from land, emoluments, fees, charges, penalties, fines and costs payable or leviable under this Act or under any Act or Regulation hereby repealed, or under any Act for the time being in force relating to land revenue;

CHAPTER XII.

PROCEDURE OF REVENUE OFFICERS.

188. In all official acts and proceedings a revenue officer shall, in the absence of any express provisions of law to the contrary, be subject as to the place, time and manner of performing his duties to the direction and control of the officer to whom he is subordinate.

Subordination of revenue officers.

189. Every revenue officer not lower in rank than a Mamlatdar's first karkun, or an Assistant Superintendent of survey, in their respective departments, shall have power to summon any person whose attendance he considers, necessary either to be examined as a party or to give evidence as a witness, or to produce documents for the purposes of any inquiry which such officer is legally, empowered to make. A summons to produce documents may be for the production of certain specified documents, or for the production of all documents of a certain description in the possession of the person summoned.

Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents.

V of 1908.

All persons so summoned shall be bound to attend, either in person or by an authorised agent, as such officer may direct :

Provided that exemptions under <sup>1</sup>[sections 132 and 133 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908], shall be applicable to requisitions for attendance under this section ; and all persons so summoned shall be bound to state the truth upon any subject respecting which they are examined or make statements, and to produce such documents and other things as may be required.

190. Every summons shall be in writing, in duplicate, and shall state the purpose for which it is issued, and shall be signed by the officer issuing it, and if he have a seal shall also bear his seal;

Summons to be in writing signed and sealed.

and shall be served by tendering or delivering a copy of it to the person summoned or, if he cannot be found, by affixing a copy of it to some conspicuous part of his usual residence.

How to be served.

If his usual residence be in another district, the summons may be sent by post to the Collector of that district, who shall cause it to be served in accordance with the preceding clause of this section.

Service in district other than that of issuer.

191. Every notice under this act, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, shall be served either by tendering or delivering a copy thereof to the person on whom it is to be served or to his agent, if he have any ; or by affixing a copy thereof to some conspicuous place on the land, if any, to which such notice refers.

Mode of serving notices.

No such notice shall be deemed void on account of any error in the name or designation of any person referred to therein, unless when such error has produced substantial injustice.

Notice not void for error.

V of 1908.

192. In any formal or summary inquiry if any party desires the attendance of witnesses, he shall follow the procedure prescribed by the <sup>2</sup>[Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for parties applying for summonses for witnesses.]

Procedure for procuring attendance of witnesses.

1. These words and figures were substituted for the words and figures "sections 640 and 641 of the Code of Civil Procedure" by Bom. 4 of 1913, s. 74.

2. These words and figures were substituted for the words and figures "Code of Civil Procedure section 160", ibid., s. 75.

Mode of taking evidence in formal inquiries.

193. In all formal inquiries the evidence shall be taken down in full, in writing, in the language in ordinary use in the district, by, or in the presence and hearing and under the personal superintendence and direction of, the officer making the investigation or inquiry, and shall be signed by him.

In cases in which the evidence is not taken down in full in writing by the officer making the inquiry he shall, as the examination of each witness proceeds, make a memorandum of the substance of what such witness deposes; and such memorandum shall be written and signed by such officer with his own hand, and shall form part of the record.

If such officer is prevented from making a memorandum as above required, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so.

Taking evidence given in English. Translation to be on record.

When the evidence is given in English, such officer may take it down in that language with his own hand, and an authenticated translation of the same in the language in ordinary use in the district shall be made and shall form part of the record.

Writing and explanation of decisions.

194. Every decision, after a formal inquiry, shall be written by the officer passing the same in his own hand-writing, and shall contain a full statement of the grounds on which it is passed.

Summary inquiries, how to be conducted.

195. In summary inquiries the presiding officer shall himself, as any such inquiry proceeds, record a minute of the proceedings in his own hand in English or in the language of the district, embracing the material averments made by the parties interested, the material parts of the evidence, the decision, and the reasons for the same:

Provided that it shall at any time be lawful for such officer to conduct an inquiry directed by this Act to be summary under all, or any, of the rules applicable to a formal inquiry, if he deem fit.

Formal and summary inquiries to be deemed judicial proceedings.

196. A formal or summary inquiry under this Act shall be deemed to be a “judicial proceeding” within the meaning of sections 193, 219 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code, and the office of any authority holding a formal or summary inquiry shall be deemed a Civil Court for the purposes of such inquiry.

XIV of 1860.

Hearing and decisions. Notice to parties.

Every hearing and decision, whether in a formal or summary inquiry shall be in public, and the parties or their authorised agents shall have due notice to attend.

Ordinary inquiries how to be conducted.

197. An inquiry which this Act does not require to be either formal or summary, or which any revenue officer may on any occasion deem to be necessary to make, in the execution of his lawful duties, shall be conducted according to such rules applicable thereto, whether general or special, as may have been prescribed by the <sup>1</sup>[<sup>2</sup>[State] Government], or an authority superior to the officer conducting such inquiry, and, except in so far as controlled by such rules, according to the discretion of the officer in such way as may seem best calculated for the ascertainment of all essential facts and the furtherance of the public good.

1. The words “Provincial Government” were substituted for the words “Governor in Council” by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

2. This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

198. In all cases in which a formal or summary inquiry is made, authenticated copies and translations of decisions, orders and the reasons therefor, and of exhibits, shall be furnished to the parties, and original documents used as evidence shall be restored to the persons who produced them, or to persons claiming under them on due application being made for the same, subject to such charges for copying etc., as may, from time to time be authorized by <sup>1</sup>[ the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government ].

Copies and translations, etc., how to be obtained.

199. Whenever it is provided by this Act that a defaulter, or any other person may be arrested, such arrest shall be made upon a warrant issued by any officer competent to direct such persons' arrest.

Arrest of a defaulter to be made upon a warrant.

200. It shall be lawful for any revenue officer at any time, and from time to time, to enter, when necessary, for the purposes of measurement, fixing, or inspecting boundaries, classification of soil, or assessment, or for any other purpose connected with the lawful exercise of his office under the provisions of this Act, or of any other law for the time being in force relating to land revenue, any lands or premises, whether belonging to <sup>3</sup>[the <sup>4</sup>[Government ] ] or to private individuals, and whether fully assessed to the land revenue or partially or wholly exempt from the same :

Power of revenue officer to enter upon any lands or premises for purposes of measurement, etc.

Provided always that no building used as a human dwelling shall be entered, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without a notice having been served at the said building not less than seven days before such entry; and provided also that in the cases of buildings of all descriptions, due regard shall be paid to the social and religious prejudices of the occupiers.

Proviso.

201. The <sup>5</sup>[ <sup>2</sup>[State] Government ] may declare what shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the language in ordinary use in any district.

202. Whenever it is provided by this, or by any other Act for the time being in force, that the Collector may or shall evict any person wrongfully in possession of land, such eviction shall be made in the following manner, viz. :—

Collector how to proceed in order to evict any person wrongfully in possession of land.

by serving a notice on the person or persons in possession requiring them within such time as may appear reasonable after receipt of the said notice to vacate the land, and, if such notice is not obeyed by removing or deputing a subordinate to remove any person who may refuse to vacate the same, and, if the officer removing any such person shall be resisted or obstructed by any person, the Collector shall hold a summary inquiry into the facts of the case, and if satisfied that the resistance or obstruction was without any just cause, and that such resistance and obstruction still continue, may, without prejudice to any proceedings to which such person may be liable under any law for the time being in force for the punishment of such resistance or obstruction, issue a warrant for the arrest of the said person, and on his appearance commit him to close custody in the office of the Collector or of any Mamlatdar or Mahalkari, or send him with a warrant, in the form of Schedule I, for imprisonment in the civil jail of the district for such period not exceeding thirty days, as may be necessary to prevent the continuance of such obstruction or resistance.

CHAPTER XIII.

APPEALS AND REVISION.

Appeal to lie from any order passed by a revenue officer to his superior.

203. In the absence of any express provision of this Act, or of any law for the time being in force to the contrary, an appeal shall lie from any decision or order passed by a revenue officer under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, to that officer's immediate superior, whether such decision or order may itself have been passed on appeal from a subordinate officer's decision or order or not.

Appeal when to lie to the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government.

204. <sup>1</sup>[Subject to the provision in the Bombay Revenue Tribunal Act, 1939] an appeal shall lie to the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government] from any decision or order passed <sup>4</sup> [* *] by a survey Commissioner, except in the case of any decision or order passed by such officer on appeal from a decision or order itself recorded in appeal by any officer subordinate to him.

Periods within which appeals must be brought.

205. No appeal shall be brought after the expiration of sixty days if the decision or order complained of have been passed by an officer inferior in rank to a Collector or a Superintendent of Survey in their respective departments; nor after the expiration of ninety days in any other case.

In computing the above periods, the time required to prepare a copy of the decision or order appealed against shall be excluded.

Admission of appeal after period of limitation.

206. Any appeal under this Chapter may be admitted after the period of limitation prescribed therefor, when the appellant satisfies the officer or the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government] <sup>5</sup>[ to whom or to which ] he appeals, that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within such period.

No appeal shall lie against order passed under this section admitting an appeal.

Provision where last day for appeal falls on a Sunday or a holiday.

207. Whenever the last day of any period provided in this chapter for the presentation of an appeal falls on a Sunday or other holiday recognized by <sup>6</sup>[the <sup>3</sup>[State] Government ] the day next following the close of the holiday shall be deemed to be such last day.

Copy of order to accompany petition of appeal.

208. Every petition of appeal shall be accompanied by the decision or order appealed against or by an authenticated copy of the same.

Powers of appellate authority.

209. The appellate authority may <sup>7</sup>[for reasons to be recorded in writing] either annual, reverse, modify or confirm the decision or order of the subordinate officer appealed against, or he may direct the subordinate officer to make such further investigation or to take such additional evidence as he may think necessary, or he may himself take such additional evidence :

<sup>1</sup>[Provided that it shall not be necessary for the appellate authority to record reasons in writing—

- (a) when an appeal is dismissed summarily, or
- (b) when the decision or order appealed from is itself a decision or order recorded in appeal, or
- (c) when an appeal is made to the <sup>2</sup>[<sup>3</sup>[State] Government ] under section 204.]

210. In any case in which an appeal lies, the appellate authority may, pending decision of the appeal, direct the execution of the decision or order of the subordinate officer to be suspended.

Power to suspend execution of order of subordinate officers.

211. The <sup>2</sup>[<sup>3</sup>[State] Government ] and any revenue officer, not inferior in rank to <sup>4</sup>[an Assistant or Deputy Collector] or a Superintendent of Survey, in their respective departments, may call for and examine the record of any inquiry or the proceedings of any subordinate revenue officer for the purpose of satisfying <sup>5</sup>[itself or himself, as the case may be, ] as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed, and as to the regularity of the proceedings of such officer.

Power of <sup>2</sup>[State] Government and of certain revenue officers to call for and examine records and proceedings of subordinate officers;

The following officer may in the same manner call for and examine the proceedings of any officer subordinate to them in any matter in which neither a formal nor a summary inquiry has been held, namely, <sup>6</sup>[* * *] a Mamlatdar, a Mahalkari, <sup>7</sup>[an] Assistant Superintendent of Survey and an Assistant Settlement Officer.

If in any case, it shall appear to the <sup>2</sup>[<sup>3</sup>[State] Government ], or to such officer aforesaid, that any decision or order or proceedings so called for should be modified, annulled or reversed, <sup>8</sup>[it or he] may pass such order thereon as <sup>8</sup>[ it or he] deems fit:

and to pass orders thereupon.

<sup>9</sup>[Provided that an Assistant or Deputy Collector shall not himself pass such order in any matter in which a formal inquiry has been held, but shall submit the record with his opinion to the Collector, who shall pass such order thereon as he may deem fit:]

212. Whenever in this Act it is declared that a decision or order shall be final, such expression shall be deemed to mean that no appeal lies from such decision or order.

Rules as to decisions or orders expressly made final.

The <sup>2</sup>[<sup>3</sup>[State] Government] alone shall competent to modify, annul or reverse any such decision or order under the provisions of the last preceding section.
