 - ^{20b}[(iii) Who is not required to file an Audit Report under section 61 for the financial year 2013-14 and has not filed Annexures under clause (ii), shall furnish the details of sales and purchases for the period from the 1st April 2013 to 31st March 2014 in Annexure-J1, J2 appended to Form 704 and other details in Annexure-C, D, G, H and I appended to Form 704 along with the return for the period ending on the 30th September 2014.

Provided further that, the provisions of the preceding proviso shall not be applicable to the dealer who has opted wholly for the Composition Scheme provided under sub-section (1), (2) and (3A) of section 42 of the Act.]

Explanation I.— For the purposes of this rule, the expression "tax liability" in relation to a registered dealer means the total of all taxes payable by him in respect of all his places of business or, as the case may be, all the constituents of his business in the State under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 and Maharashtra Value Added Tax Act, 2002, after adjustment of the amount of set-off or refund claimed by him, if any, under the respective Act.

Explanation II.— For the purposes of this rule the expression "entitlement for refund" in relation to a registered dealer means the net refund payable to him in respect of all his places of business or, as the case may be, all the constituents of his business in the State under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 and Maharashtra Value Added Tax Act,2002, after adjustment of the amount of set-off claimed by him against taxes payable under the said Acts.

Explanation III.— For the purposes of this rule, the first six monthly return shall be for the period starting on the 1st April and ending on the 30th September. The second six monthly return shall be for the period starting on the 1st October and ending on the 31st March.

Explanation IV.— Where a dealer is required under rule 18 to file quarterly returns in respect of his place of business for which he has obtained a Certificate of Entitlement and has also obtained a permission to file separate returns in respect of any other place of business or any other constituent of his business, then notwithstanding anything contained in this sub-rule, he shall file quarterly separate returns where he is required to file separate returns.]

^{20c}[(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing clauses,-

- (i) with a view to promote effective compliance and to ensure compatibility with the automated system, the Commissioner may, for every year and in respect of each dealer, determine the periodicity of filing returns;
- (ii) the Commissioner may apply the principles laid down in subrule (4) of this rule;
- (iii) the periodicity so determined shall be final and be displayed on the website of the Sales Tax Department.

^{20d}[Provided that, a dealer, who is required to file six monthly return, may apply to the Commissioner on or before the 15th May of financial year for change of his periodicity from six-monthly to quarterly. The Commissioner may change such periodicity and periodicity so changed shall be final unless it is changed to monthly as per the provisions of clause (c) of this sub-rule.]

Explanation.- For the purposes of this clause the expression "periodicity" shall mean the frequency with which the dealer is required to file return i.e. Monthly, ^{20e}[quarterly, six monthly or, as the case may be, annually].]

- ²¹[(4A) Subject to the provisions of rule 18 and other provisions of this rule except sub-rule (4), for the period starting on or after 1st April 2016,

(b) any other registered dealer shall file a quarterly return within twenty one days from the end of the quarter to which the return relates;

Provided that, the dealer covered under sub-clause (i), (ii) of clause (a) or, as the case may be clause (b),-

- (i) not being the dealer who has opted wholly for the Composition Scheme provided under sub-section (1) and (2) of section 42 of the Act, and
- (ii) who is not required to file an Audit Report as provided under section 61, shall, file the last monthly or, as the case may be, quarterly return on or before 21st April of the year succeeding the year to which such return relates, alongwith other details for entire year in Annexures appended to Form 704.
- (c) The provisions of clause (e) of sub-rule (4) and Explanation I and II, of rule 17, shall mutatis mutandis apply to this sub-rule.]
- ^{21a}[(4B) Subject to the rule 18 and other provisions of this rule except subrules (4) and (4A), for the period starting on or after 1st April 2019, every registered dealer whose tax liability during the previous year—
 - (a) had not exceeded rupees twenty five thousand shall file annual return within twenty one days from the end of the year to which return relates;
 - ^{21b}[Provided that, for the year 2019-20 and 2020-21 annual return shall be filed on or before the 30th June 2021;]
 - (b) was more than rupees twenty five thousand but not exceeding rupees ten lakh or whose entitlement for refund during the previous year had not exceeded rupees one crore, shall file quarterly return within twenty one days of the month immediately succeeding the quarter to which the return relates;
 - ^{21c}[Provided that, for the year 2019-20, the dealer whose tax liability in the previous year does not exceed rupees one lakh, shall file quarterly return on or before the 21st day of July 2020 for the quarter ended on 31st day of March 2020;]
 - (c) had exceeded rupees ten lakh or whose entitlement for refund during the previous year had exceeded rupees one crore, shall file monthly return within twenty one days from the end of the month to which the return relates,

^{21d}[Provided that, the dealer whose tax liability in the financial year 2019-20 is not more than rupees one lakh, such dealer shall file monthly return for the month of March

2020, on or before the 21st July 2020,]

the provisions of clause (e) of sub-rule (4) and Explanations I and II of this rule, shall mutatis mutandis apply to this sub-rule.]

^{21e}[Provided that, from the period starting on or after 1st April 2020, the retail outlets, not owned by any Oil Company, registered under the Act and who have effected sales of High Speed Diesel Oil or Petrol purchased from the registered dealers, within the State of Maharashtra, shall not be liable to file return under this sub-rule.]

- ^{21f}[(4C) Subject to the rule 18 the dealer who is liable to file monthly return, but having tax liability of rupees ten thousand or below in the month of April 2020 and May 2020, then such dealer, shall file monthly return on or before the 21st July 2020 for the months of April 2020 and May 2020.]
 - ²²[(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in rules 18, 19, 20, 41 and 45,-
 - (a) The Commissioner may by a notification published in the Official Gazette provide that in respect of the periods starting on or after the date specified in the said notification, the class or classes of dealers specified in the said notification shall make payment and file electronic returns in the manner provided in this subrule. Such notifications may be issued from time to time.
 - (b) Every dealer to whom the said notification applies shall, on or before the date specified under sub-rule (3) and (4) or rule 18 for submission of return, pay into Government Treasury the tax due, if any, from him for the period covered by the said return and interest, if any, payable by him under the Act. ²³[Where the return is not field within the prescribed time, the dealer shall pay the late fee due from him in addition to the tax and interest, if any, due as per such return.] Every such payment shall be accompanied by a challan in Form 210. The form of the challan accompanying the payment shall be duly filled in, signed and verified by the payer and the amount paid shall be stated both in words and in figures in the space provided for that purpose in the said form.
 - (c) The payments shall be made into Government Treasury. The portion of the concerned Form marked "for the payer" shall be returned by the Government treasury to the dealer duly receipted, and the portion of the Form marked "for the registering authority" shall be forwarded by the Government Treasury to the registering authority specified in this rule.

(d) The Sales Tax Department shall provide templates of the forms 231, 232, 233, 234 and 235 on the website www.mahavat.gov.in. Every dealer to whom the said notification applies shall download the template of the Form appropriate to him as per sub-rule (1) and upload it after making data entry in all the relevant fields. The uploading shall be done on or before the date specified in this rule or as the case may be, rule 18 for submission of the return. After, uploading the system shall generate an acknowledgement in two copies of the electronic return having being filled. ²⁴[..*.].

 $1 \quad \text{This rule was inserted by Notification No.VAT-1024/CR-29/Taxation-1 dated 12th September 2024}.$

35. Summary rejection.

(1) If the memorandum of appeal omits to state any of the particulars required under rule 31 or is not accompanied with the certified copy of the order supplied to the dealer or a duly authenticated copy thereof, the appeal may be summarily rejected:

Provided that, no appeal shall be summarily rejected under this sub-rule unless the appellant is given a reasonable opportunity to amend the memorandum of appeal.

(2) The appeal may also be summarily rejected on grounds other than those specified in sub-rule (1), which the appellate authority may consider sufficient and which shall be reduced to writing by the appellate authority:

Provided that, before an order summarily rejecting an appeal under this sub-rule is passed, the appellant shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) If within thirty days from the date on which any appeal is summarily rejected under sub-rule (1) or (2), the appellant makes an application to the appellate authority for setting aside the order of summary rejection and satisfies it that the notice under the proviso to sub-rule (1) to amend the memorandum of appeal or of a hearing under the proviso to sub-rule (2) was not duly served on him, or that he was prevented by sufficient cause from amending the memorandum of appeal or from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the said authority shall make an order setting aside the summary rejection and restore the appeal to its file:

Provided that, if an order on the application for setting aside the order of summary rejection is not made within thirty days of the receipt of the application, it shall be deemed that the appeal is restored to the file of the appellate authority.

36. Hearing.

(1) (a) If the appellate authority does not summarily reject the appeal, it shall fix a date for hearing. The date so fixed shall not be earlier than ten days from the date on which intimation thereof is given to the appellant or to his agent:

Provided that, a date earlier than aforesaid may be fixed for hearing, if the appellant or his agent agrees thereto in writing.

(b) The authority aforesaid may for sufficient reasons adjourn at any stage the hearing of an appeal to a different time on the same day or any other day so however that the day to which the hearing is adjourned shall not be earlier than ten days from the day on which intimation thereof is given to the appellant or to his agent:

Provided that, a date earlier than aforesaid may be fixed for hearing an appeal if the appellant or his agent agrees thereto in writing.

(2) If on the date and at the time fixed for hearing or on any other date or at any other time to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant does not appear before the said authority either in person or through an agent, the said authority may dismiss the appeal or may decide it exparte, as it may think fit:

Provided that, if within thirty days from the date on which the appeal was dismissed or decided ex- parte, under this sub-rule, the appellant makes an application to the appellate authority for setting aside the order and satisfies it that the intimation of the date of hearing was not duly served on him or that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called for hearing the said authority shall make an order setting aside the dismissal or ex-parte decision upon such terms as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the appeal.

- (3) (a) Every appellate authority including the Tribunal shall maintain registers showing the particulars regarding the chronological order of the filing of appeals and also the quantum of relief sought.
 - (b) For the purposes of these rules, the expression "quantum of relief sought" means:—
 - (i) the aggregate of the amount of tax or penalty or interest, if any or sum forfeited or demanded and the amount claimed by the appellant as refundable, or
 - (ii) the difference between the amount of refund claimed by the appellant and the amount of refund granted in the order against which the appeal is filed, or
 - (iii) the difference of the amount of tax or penalty or interest, if any, or sum forfeited, demanded and the amount accepted by the appellant to be payable.
 - (4) Every appellate authority including the Tribunal shall fix dates for hearing in such a way that half of the cases fixed for hearing during any month are the cases where appeals, if any are filed against any order passed under section 56 or where appeals are filed earlier to all other appeals and the remaining half shall be out of the balance appeals involving the highest quantum of relief sought.

37. Supply of copy of order to the appellant and to the officer concerned.

(1) A certified copy of any order passed in appeal shall be supplied free of cost to the person or dealer concerned ¹[and one copy shall be sent to the officer against whose order the appeal is filed and in the case where the order is passed in second appeal, another copy shall be sent to the officer whose order forms the subject of the proceedings before the first appellate authority.]

1 These words were substituted from 1st November 2008 by Notification No. VAT/1508/CR-69/Taxation-1 Dt. 23rd October 2008. Earlier these words read as 'and another copy shall be sent to the officer against whose order the appeal is filed'

38. Award of costs by Tribunal.

- (1) The costs of all appeals and other proceedings before the Tribunal shall be in the discretion of the Tribunal.
- (2) Where the appellant withdraws from the proceedings without the permission of the Tribunal or fails, without a reasonable excuse, to appear before the Tribunal on the date and at the time fixed by it under notice served on him, he shall be liable for such costs as the Tribunal may award.
- (3) In its final order, if costs are awarded, the Tribunal shall state who shall bear the cost and in what proportion, if any.
- (4) No costs shall be awarded against a dealer or person unless he is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
- (5) Where costs are awarded, a bill of costs shall be drawn up by the Registrar of the Tribunal and attached to its judgment and order.

[39. Notices for the purposes of sub-section (10) of section 29.

- (1) Notice for the purpose of sub-section (10) of section 29 shall be in Form 412.
- (2) Where an order of forfeiture is made, the Commissioner shall as soon as may be practicable, publish a notice in Form 420 in the Official Gazette for the information of the persons concerned]

- 51. Claim and grant of set-off in respect of purchases held in stock in the appointed day.
 - (1) ¹[Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 53 and 54, while assessing the amount of tax,] payable by any registered dealer in respect of any period starting on or after the 1st April 2005 but ending on or before the 31st March 2006, the Commissioner shall in respect of the purchases or, as the case may be, entry of any goods made by the registered dealer (hereinafter in this rule referred to as "the claimant dealer" at any time on or before the 31st March 2005 and held in stock by him on 31st March 2005 at the close of business, grant him a set-off of an amount equal to the aggregate of the following sums that is to say,—
 - (a) in respect of the said purchases covered by the Bombay Sales Tax Act, 1959, a sum calculated in accordance with rule 44D of the Bombay Sales Tax Rules, 1959, as the rule stood immediately before the appointed day, if the conditions specified in the said Act and Rule are fulfilled.

- (b) in respect of purchases covered by any of the earlier laws other than the Bombay Sales Tax Act, 1959, a sum collected separately from the claimant dealer by the other registered dealer or, as the case may be, person holding licence, by way of tax on the purchase made by him from the other registered dealer or, as the case may be, person holding licence, of the said goods,
- (c) any sum paid by the dealer on his purchases or, as the case may be, the entry of goods, under the Maharashtra Tax on Entry of Motor Vehicles into the Local Areas Act, 1987 or the Maharashtra Tax on the Entry of Goods into the Local Areas Act, 2002.
- (2) No set-off shall be allowed under this rule,—
 - (a) in respect of any purchase or entry of goods if the claimant dealer has claimed set-off, drawback or, as the case may be, refund in respect of the said purchase or entry under any earlier law, and
 - (b) unless the goods are resold on or after the 1st April 2005 and on or before the 31st December 2005 or are used in the packing of goods so resold ²[or, as the case may be, the goods are subjected to a process enumerated in rule 3 of the Bombay Sales Tax Rules, 1959, as the rule stood immediately before the appointed day and the processed goods are sold on or before the 31st December 2005 or are used in the packing of goods so sold;],
 - (c) in respect of goods treated as capital assets unless the said assets are purchased on or after the 1st April 2003 or their entry in the State has taken place on or after the 1st April 2003 and are resold on or before the 31st December 2005.
 - ³[Explanation.— For the purposes of clauses (b) and (c) the word "goods resold" will also include goods dispatched outside the State, to any place within India, not by reason of sale, to the dealer's own place of business or of his agent and where the claimant dealer is a commission agent, to the place of his principal or are used in the packing of goods so dispatched.]
- (3) The set-off under this rule shall be claimed,—
 - (a) in respect of capital assets only when they are resold and such claim shall be made in the return for the

- period in which the said capital assets are resold, and
- (b) in respect of other goods in the period starting on the 1st April 2005.
- (4) The set-off under this rule shall not be granted unless the claimant dealer has complied with the requirements of the notification within the time specified therein issued under section 84.

53. Reduction in set-off.

The set-off available under any rule shall be reduced and shall accordingly be disallowed in part or full in the event of any of the contingencies specified below and to the extent specified.

- (1) If the claimant dealer has used any taxable goods as fuel, then an amount equal to ¹[three per cent] of the corresponding purchase price shall be reduced from the amount of set-off otherwise available in respect of the said purchase.
- ^{1a}[(1A) On the purchases of natural gas to which sub-rule (1) does not apply, unless the natural gas purchased is resold or sold in the course of inter-State trade or commerce or in the course of export out of the territory of India or dispatched outside the State, to any place within India, not by reason of sale, to his own place of business or of his agent or where the claimant dealer is a commission agent, to the place of business of his principal, an amount equal to three per cent. of the purchase price shall be reduced from the amount of set-off otherwise available in respect of the said purchases.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this sub-rule, "natural gas" will be deemed to have been sold or resold if the sale is after conversion from one form of natural gas to another form.]

- (2) (a) If the claimant dealer manufactures any tax free goods then an amount equal to ¹[²[the amount calculated at the rate notified from time to time, by the Central Government for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956]] of the purchase price of the corresponding taxable goods purchased by him (not being goods treated as capital assets or used as fuel ^{2a}[and natural gas]) shall be reduced from the amount of setoff otherwise available in respect of the said purchases.
 - ³[Explanation.- For the purpose of this clause "manufactured tax free goods" will not include,-
 - (a) sarki pend, de-oiled cakes, and
 - (b) any other goods covered by SCHEDULE A, if they are sold in the course of export out of the territory of India covered by section 5 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956.]
 - (b) If the claimant dealer resells any tax free goods and the tax-free goods are packed in any material, then an amount equal to ¹[²[the amount calculated at the rate notified from time to time, by the Central Government for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956]]. of the purchase price of the corresponding purchases of packing materials, if any, shall be reduced from the amount of set-off otherwise available in respect of the said purchases of packing materials.
 - ⁵[Provided that no reduction under this clause shall be made if the goods packed are sold in the course of export out of territory of India and the export is covered by section 5 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956]
- (3) ^{5a}[(a)] If the claimant dealer dispatches any taxable goods outside the State, to any place within India, not by reason of sale, to his own place of business or of his agent or where the claimant dealer is a commission agent, to the place of business of his principal, then an amount equal to ^{5b}[four per cent.] of the purchase price of the corresponding taxable goods (not being goods treated as capital assets or used as fuel ^{2a}[and natural gas]) shall be deducted from the amount of set-off otherwise available in respect of the said purchases.

⁶[Provided that, if the taxable goods are dispatched outside the state and the rate of tax specified in the SCHEDULE against the corresponding taxable goods purchased is less than four per cent., then the reduction from set-off under this clause shall be calculated at such lower rate of tax specified in the SCHEDULE against the corresponding goods.]

⁷[Provided further that] the deduction provided in this sub-rule shall not apply if the goods dispatched are brought back to the State within six months of the date of dispatch whether after processing or otherwise.

⁸[8a[Provided also that], the provisions of this clause shall not be applicable in respect of the contingencies specified in clause (b)]

- ^{8b}[(b) If the claimant dealer manufacturers the goods covered under entries 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Schedule "D" appended to the Act and dispatches the said goods not by reason of sale, outside the State to any place within India to his own place of business, or the place of business of his agent or where the claimant dealer is a commission agent, to the place of business of his principal, then an amount equal to ^{8c}[four per cent.] of the value of the goods so dispatched shall be reduced from the amount of the set-off otherwise available in respect of the aforesaid manufactured goods.]
- (4) If the claimant dealer has made a sale by way of transfer of property in goods (whether as goods or in some other form) involved in the execution of works contract then, if the claimant dealer has opted for composition of tax under subsection (3) of section 42, ⁹[the corresponding amount of set-off other than the set-off pertaining to purchases of capital assets and set-off pertaining to goods in which property is not transferred shall be reduced and the set-off shall be allowed and calculated,
 - (a) by multiplying the said amount of set-off by the fraction 16/25 where the dealer has opted to pay tax @ 8% on the total contract value, and
 - (b) in respect of periods starting on or after ¹⁰[20th June 2006] by reducing from the amount of set-off a sum equal to 4% of the purchase price on which such set-off is calculated where the dealer has opted to pay tax @ 5% on the total contract value in the case of construction contracts.],
 - ¹¹[Explanation:— For the purposes of this sub-rule, the expression "claimant dealer" shall also include a sub-contractor if the principal contractor has awarded the contract or part of contract to a sub-contractor and the principal contractor has opted in respect of the said contract for the composition of tax under sub-section (3) of section 42.]

- 11a[(5) (a) If the business, in which the dealer is engaged is discontinued and is not transferred or, otherwise disposed of and is not continued by any other person, or, if the registration of a dealer is deemed to be cancelled as per the provision of sub-section (6A) of section 16 and is not revoked,
 - (b) if the dealer who is registered under the existing law on the date immediately preceding the date of commencement of the Maharashtra Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (Mah. XLIII of 2017) (herein after in this sub-rule referred to as "Goods and Services Tax Act") and whose registration is subsequently cancelled for the reasons as under-
 - (i) not liable to be registered under Goods and Services Tax Act, or,
 - (ii) not enrolled on Common Portal as notified under Goods and Services Tax Act, or,
 - (iii) not submitted an application duly signed, along with the information and documents specified in application, on Common Portal under Goods and Services Tax Act,
 - (c) if the dealer who has not opted to pay tax under composition scheme provided as per section 42 or 43 during the previous year but opts for the composition scheme provided under Goods and Services Tax Act, then in such cases the set-off on the purchases (not being purchases treated as capital assets) corresponding to the goods held in stock as on the date immediately preceding the date of commencement of Goods and Services Tax Act shall be disallowed and accordingly be reduced fully.

- ¹²[(6) If out of the gross receipts of a dealer in any year, receipts on account of sale are less than fifty per cent. of the total receipts,—
 - (a) then to the extent that dealer is a hotel or club, not being covered under composition scheme, the dealer shall be entitled to claim set-off only,—

- (i) on the purchases corresponding to the food and drinks (whether alcoholic or not) which are served, supplied or, as the case may be, resold or sold, and
- (ii) on the purchases of capital assets and consumables pertaining to the kitchens and sale, service or supply of the said food or drinks, and
- (b) in so far as the dealer is not a hotel or restaurant, the dealer shall be entitled to claim set-off only on those purchases effected in that year where the corresponding goods are sold or resold within six months of the date of purchase or are consigned within the said period, not by way of sale to another State, to oneself or one's agent or purchases of packing materials used for packing of such goods sold, resold or consigned:

Provided that for the purposes of clause (b), the dealer who is a manufacturer of goods not being a dealer principally engaged in doing job work or labour work shall be entitled to claim set-off on his purchases of plant and machinery which are treated as capital assets and purchases of parts, components and accessories of the said capital assets, and on purchases of consumables, stores and packing materials in respect of a period of three years ¹³[from the] date of effect of the certificate of registration.]

¹⁴[Explanation.— For the purposes of this sub-rule, the "receipts" means the receipts pertaining to all activities including business activities carried out in the State but does not include the amount representing the value of the goods consigned not by way of sales to another State to oneself or one's agent.]

¹⁵[(7) ******]

¹⁶[(7A) If the claimant dealer has purchased office equipment, furniture or fixtures and has treated them as capital assets and he is not engaged in the business of transferring the right to use these goods (whether or not for a specified period) for any purpose, then the corresponding amount of set-off to which he is otherwise entitled shall be reduced by an amount equal to ¹⁷[three per cent of the purchase price] on which such set-off is calculated and the balance shall be allowed.]

- 18[(7B)18a[Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (6) of this rule, if the claimant dealer is holding a license] for transmission or as the case may be, distribution of electricity under the Electricity Act, 2003 or is a generating company as defined in the said Act, then in respect of the periods starting on or after the 1st April 2005, save as otherwise provided under 18b[sub-rule (1) and (1A)], an amount equal to the amount calculated at the rate notified from time to time, by the Central Government for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 of the purchase price of the goods purchased including goods treated as capital assets by him for use in the generation, transmission, or, as the case may be, distribution of electricity shall be reduced from the amount of set- off otherwise available in respect of the said purchases of goods including goods treated as capital assets.]
 - (8) The claimant dealer shall deduct the amount required to be reduced under this rule from the amount of set-off available in respect of the period in which the contingencies specified in this rule occur and claim only the balance amount as set-off and when the amount so required to be deducted exceeds the said amount of set-off available in respect of that period, he shall pay an amount equal to the excess at the time when he is required to pay the tax in respect of the said period.
- ¹⁹[(9)(a) For the purposes of sub-rule (1), ²⁰[sub-rule (1A),] clause (a) of sub-rule (2) and sub-rule (3), any reference to the corresponding goods on the purchase of which set-off is claimed, shall be construed in relation to any period starting on or after the 1st April 2005, as a reference to the corresponding goods (not being consumable, stores, goods treated as capital assets, parts, components and accessories of capital assets 21[]) which are resold or are so dispatched outside the State or are used in or relation to the manufacture of goods so sold or dispatched and are contained in the goods so sold, resold or dispatched and the packing material used along with the goods so sold, resold or dispatched. Any reference to the corresponding purchase price, corresponding taxable goods or corresponding purchases of packing material shall be construed accordingly.
 - (b) While reducing set-off under,—
 - (i) sub-rule (2), for the purpose of determining the purchase price of the corresponding taxable goods, where it is not possible to ascertain the purchase price by reference to the books of account, the ratio of the sale price of the taxable goods and tax free goods or where there is no sale price, the value of the taxable goods and tax free goods shall be applied; and

- (ii) sub-rule (3), the ratio of the value of the goods inclusive of any duty of Excise as it appears in the books of account of the goods dispatched as aforesaid and the sale price of other goods shall be applied for deciding the corresponding purchase price.
- (10) If the dealer has executed a contract, at any time after the 1st April 2005, of processing of textiles, then set-off on the goods purchased on or after the said date, shall be allowed to the extent of tax paid on purchases in excess of the amount calculated at the rate notified from time to time, by the Central Government for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 on the purchase price,—
 - (a) as regards the goods in respect of which property is transferred during the said processing, and
 - (b) as regards packing materials used for packing of the said textiles, and
 - (c) as regards other purchases including purchases of capital assets shall be calculated as permissible under other rules.]
- ²²[(11) (a) If the claimant dealer is engaged in the business of transferring the right to use (whether or not for a specified period) for any purpose, of passenger motor vehicles, then he shall be entitled to claim set-off of tax paid on the purchase of such motor vehicles only to the extent of tax payable on such transfer of right to use;
 - (b) the set off as determined under clause (a) in respect of the such vehicles shall be claimed in the period in which such right to use has been transferred by the claimant dealer.]

55. Condition for grant of set-off or refund and adjustment of drawback, set-off in certain circumstances

- (1) No set-off or refund under these rules shall be granted to a dealer in respect of any amount of tax recovered from him¹[or as the case may be, paid by him] on the purchase of any goods or paid by him or in respect of entry of any goods,—
 - ²[(a) unless the goods are purchased or entry is effected on or after the 1st April of the year in which the dealer has obtained registration and,—
 - (1) the goods are treated as capital assets by the dealer and have not been sold before the date of effect of registration, or
 - (2) the goods are not treated as capital assets and have not been sold or disposed of before the date of effect of registration, or
 - (3) the goods are not treated as capital assets and have been used or consumed in manufacture and the manufactured goods have not been sold before the date of effect of registration, or
 - (4) the dealer was a registered dealer at the time of such purchase or entry
 - (b) unless such dealer has,—

- (i) maintained a true account in chronological order of all the purchases of goods made by him on or after the appointed day, showing the following details:—
 - (A) the date on which the goods were purchased;
 - (B) the name of the selling dealer and his registration certificate number, if registered, from whom the goods are purchased, and the description of the goods;
 - (C) the number of the tax invoice under which they were purchased;
 - (D) the purchase price of the goods;
 - *(E) ³[the amount of tax], if any, recovered from him ^{3a}[or, as the case may be, paid] by the selling dealer;
- (ii) in the case of goods in respect of the purchase of which tax has been ^{3b}[recovered or as the case may be, paid by the claimant dealer] or is payable by him as purchase tax under an earlier law, maintained a true account in chronological order of the goods so purchased and held by him on the appointed day, which shall show the particulars mentioned at (A) to (E) above, and the amount of tax recovered under each of the earlier laws separately.
- (2) The claimant dealer shall, if so required, produce before the Commissioner the original bill/invoice/cash memorandum relating to each purchase in respect of which the claim for set-off has been made in respect of any purchase made before the appointed day, and a tax invoice in respect of any purchase made after the appointed day.
- ⁴[(3) (a) Where a dealer has filed a return in respect of any period contained in a year, then he may, subject to the other provisions of these rules, adjust the aggregate of
 - (i) any payment made in respect of the said period before filing of the said return,
 - (ii) the total value of the tax deduction certificates received by him in that period, 4a[]
 - ^{4b}[(iiA) the total value of the collection certificate received by him in that period, and]

- (iii) the amount adjustable by way of refund adjustment order issued in respect of that period.

56. Reimbursement in respect of declared goods purchased on or after the appointed day.

Where a dealer is liable to pay tax under the Act then in assessing the amount of tax under this Act in respect of any period payable by such dealer (hereinafter referred to in this rule as "the claimant dealer"), the Commissioner shall grant him in respect of declared goods purchased by him on or after the appointed day and resold by him in the course of inter-State trade or commerce and on which resale, tax under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 (LXXIV of 1956), has been paid by him, reimbursement of the tax paid by him on his purchases of the said goods.

57. Reduction of sale price for levy of tax.

(1) A registered dealer may, in respect of any sale effected by him on or after the appointed day on which sales tax is payable by him and where he has not separately collected any amount by way of sales tax, deduct from the sale price of the goods a sum calculated in accordance with the formula as follows:—

 1 [Amount of deduction = SP x [R/100+R]

Where R = the rate of tax applicable to the sale of goods and SP = the sale price of the goods;

(2) A registered dealer may, in respect of any resale of goods made ² [on or] after the appointed day of goods

originally manufactured whether before or after the appointed day by an unit under the exemption mode of any Package Scheme of Incentives, for the purpose of levy of tax deduct from the sale price of the resale of such goods an amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:—

(a) Where the goods are purchased by the claimant dealer whether before or after the appointed day and tax is not recovered separately from the claimant dealer in his purchase invoice;

Amount of deduction = Amount of purchase price including the price of goods used in packing if the packing is charged separately.

(b) Where the goods are purchased by the claimant dealer ²[on or] after the appointed day from a registered dealer who has separately recovered tax from the claimant dealer where P is the aggregate of the purchase price of the goods, and of the goods used for packing of the said goods if the packing is charged separately. T is the amount of tax recovered separately from the claimant dealer in respect of the purchase of the goods and R is the rate of tax generally applicable to the sale of such goods:

³[Provided that no deduction as aforesaid shall be granted, if the purchases are not supported by a tax invoice or bill as provided in sub-rule (2A) of rule 77]

- (c) A registered dealer in respect of the resale effected by him on or after the appointed day of goods originally manufactured by an exemption unit and which are held by him in opening stock on the appointed day may reduce from the sale price his purchase price if the said goods are supported by a bill or cash memorandum as provided in clause (aa) of rule 53 of the Bombay Sales Tax Rules, 1959, as the rule stood immediately before the appointed day.
- (3) Where the sale price is to be reduced in accordance with sub-rule (1) and also sub-rule (2), then the sale price shall first be reduced in accordance with sub-rule (2) and the reduced sale price shall be further reduced in accordance with sub-rule (1).
 - (4) Where a registered dealer has sold any goods after the appointed day by way of delivery of goods on hire-purchase or any system of payment by instalments, then he may deduct from the sale price, the component of interest, contained in the sale price, if the agreement for sale is reduced to writing and the component of interest is specified therein.

58. Determination of sale price and of purchase price in respect of sale by transfer of property in goods (whether as good or in some other form) involved in the execution of a works contract.

- (1) The value of the goods at the time of the transfer of property in the goods (whether as goods or in some other form) involved in the execution of a works contract may be determined by effecting the following deductions from the value of the entire contract, in so far as the amounts relating to the deduction pertain to the said works contract:—
 - (a) labour¹[, service tax collected separately and service charges] for the execution of the works ^{1a}[..*.];
 - (b) amounts paid by way of price for sub-contract, if any, to sub-contractors;
 - (c) charges for planning, designing and architect's fees;
 - (d) charges for obtaining on hire or otherwise, machinery and tools for the execution of the works contract;
 - (e) cost of consumables such as water, electricity, fuel used in the execution of works contract, the property in which is not transferred in the course of execution of the works contract;
 - (f) cost of establishment of the contractor to the extent to which it is relatable to supply of the said labour and services;
 - (g) other similar expenses relatable to the said supply of labour and services, where the labour and services are subsequent to the said transfer of property;
 - (h) profit earned by the contractor to the extent it is relatable to the supply of said labour and services:

¹ This formula was substituted with effect from 1st April 2005 by Notification No. STR.1506/CR-38/Taxation-1 Dt. 8th September 2006. Earlier this formula read as 'Amount of deduction= R/100 +R Where R = the rate of tax applicable to the sale of the goods.'

Provided that where the contractor has not maintained accounts which enable a proper evaluation of the different deductions as above or where the Commissioner finds that the accounts maintained by the contractor are not sufficiently clear or intelligible, the contractor or, as the case may be, the Commissioner may in lieu of the deductions as above provide a lump sum deduction as provided in the Table below and determine accordingly the sale price of the goods at the time of the said transfer of property.

- (b) permit an Eligible Industrial Unit which is a dealer registered under the Act and which has been granted an Eligibility Certificate under the 1988 Scheme, 1993 Scheme falling under the Package Scheme of Incentives or the Power Generation Promotion Policy, 1998 to defer the payment of sales tax payable on sales manufactured by such Industrial Unit and of scrap goods of by-products covered by the Certificate of Entitlement, ¹[and the purchase tax on raw material as reduced by set-off in respect of such purchase tax available to the dealer if he was not holding Certificate of Entitlement, up to the period by which the monetary ceiling gets exhausted or till the last day of the period mentioned in the Entitlement Certificate whichever event occurs first beyond the period prescribed in rule 41.
- (2) The permission to defer the payment of taxes under sub-rule
 - (1) shall be subject to the following conditions:—
 - (a) Such deferment shall be permitted only to those Eligible Industrial Units, which have filed the returns by the dates prescribed.
 - (b) The deferment in respect of clause (a) of sub-rule (1) shall be restricted to the period by which monetary ceiling gets exhausted or till the last day of the period covered by the Eligibility certificate or to such shorter period as may be determined by the Implementing Agency, whichever is earlier.
 - (c) The Commissioner may initially permit the Eligible Industrial Unit to defer the payment of such tax due in respect of the period specified in condition (b) till the assessment of the period covered by the return is completed and where such assessment is not made,

- the initial permission, shall subject to the other provisions of this rule, become final.
- (d) The payment of such tax according to the return or, as the case may be, the assessment order for the return in respect of the period specified in condition (b) or as the case may be, such tax payable according to the order, if any, that may have been passed under section 23, 24, 25, 26 or 27 in respect of the said period shall be deferred for a period of twelve years in respect of industrial units covered by clause (a) of sub-rule (1) and for a period of ten years in respect of Industrial Units covered by clause (b) of sub-rule (1) and that such period would be computed from the last date prescribed for furnishing the last return, for the year containing the period. After expiry of such period the amount payable according to the said order shall be payable by the Eligible Industrial Unit in six equal annual instalments in respect of units covered by clause (a) of sub-rule (1) and five equal annual instalments in respect of units covered by clause (b), of the said subrule (1):

Provided that, in respect of an industrial unit being a Mega Project or, as the case may be, a Very Large Project under the 1993 Package Scheme of Incentives located in Vidarbha and Marathwada region of the State such tax shall be deferred for a period of eighteen years from the last date for furnishing the last return of the year containing the period concerned. After expiry of such period, the amount payable shall be paid in seven equal annual instalments:

Provided also that, in respect of an industrial unit being a Mega Project or, as the case may be, a Very Large Project under the 1993 Package Scheme of Incentives, located in areas other than Vidarbha and Marathwada region of the State, such tax shall be deferred for a period of fourteen years from the last date for furnishing the last return of the year containing the period concerned. After expiry of such period, the amount payable shall be paid in five equal annual instalments.

(e) The Eligible Industrial Unit shall maintain separate books of account in respect of the transactions pertaining to the sales and purchases made by the said Industrial Unit.

²3 The Eligible Industrial Unit shall file returns covering all the sales and purchases relating to the said unit for the period and by the dates prescribed to the registering authority which has the jurisdiction over the place of business of the dealer in respect of which he holds the Certificate of Entitlement under any Package Scheme of Incentives except the Power Generation Promotion Policy, 1998.

However, if the dealer has two or more Entitlement Certificates issued to him he shall file return with the registering authority which has jurisdiction over the place of business pertaining to the Entitlement Certificate whose period of entitlement ends later

- (g) The Eligible Industrial Unit shall file a return covering the sales and purchases pertaining to the deferment of tax by the said unit and shall file a separate return for other transactions of sale and purchase not pertaining to deferment of tax.]
- (h) The tax which is deferred under the provisions of this rule shall be immediately recoverable at any time prior to the expiry of the period of deferment in any one or more of the following circumstances, namely:—
 - (i) if the relevant Implementing Agency requires the Eligible Unit to pay forthwith such amount as may be determined by the said Implementing Agency on the said Unit contravening any of the provisions of the Package Scheme of Incentives, or the conditions of the Eligibility Certificate or the stipulations or undertaking as the agreement made per connection with the grant of incentives, under the said Package Scheme of Incentives Eligibility Certificate being cancelled or revoked by the Implementing Agency;
 - (ii) if the Eligible Industrial Unit contravenes any of the provisions of the Act or the rules made there under.
 - (iii) if the Certificate of Entitlement issued by the Commissioner is cancelled or revoked;
 - (iv) the Certificate of Entitlement issued by the Commissioner shall be liable to be cancelled or revoked in the following circumstances, namely:—
 - (a) the Eligibility Certificate issued by the Implementing Agency being cancelled or revoked;

- (b) the Eligible Industrial Unit contravenes any of the provisions of the Act or the rules or the notifications made or issued there under;
- (c) the Registration Certificate held by the Unit being cancelled.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this rule "Eligible Industrial Unit" means an Industrial Unit to whom the Eligibility Certificate is issued by the Implementing agency under the relevant Package Scheme of Incentives and to whom the Certificate of Entitlement is granted by the Commissioner with effect from such date as may be specified therein.

⁴[(3) The provisions contained in clauses (f) and (g) of sub-rule (2) shall mutatis mutandis apply to a unit entitled to avail sales tax incentives by way of exemption from payment of tax.]
