II. (A) Procedure Relating to Promotion

When a post is to be filled in by promotion, the principles and methods to be observed shall be :

- (i) No employee will generally be promoted to a grade which is not immediately above his grade in the line of promotion as prescribed by the Corporation from time to time.

 Ammended vide Gazette Notification dated 27.6.1996.

 Ammended vide Gazette Notification dated 15.06.2017.

- (ii) No employee will be promoted to a post in category III or above unless he possesses minimum educational qualifications of Matriculation or its equivalent.
- (iii) When a post is non-selection post, the basis of promotion shall be 'Seniority subject to fitness' as decided by the respective authority.
- (iv) When a post is a selection post, the basis of promotion shall be 'Merit with due regard to seniority', merit being judged on the basis of a person's past performance by a Departmental Promotion Composition of the Departmental Promotion Committee, shall be the same as that of the Selection Committee of appointment. Selected persons shall be arranged in the order of their inter seniority in the grade from which they are promoted. In exceptional cases, where a selected person is assessed to be so outstanding as to deserve special consideration, the Departmental Promotion Committee may after fully satisfying itself that the person has been adjudged outstanding not merely on the basis of his grading in the confidential roll but that this grading was based on his outstanding performance place him in such higher position, vis-a-vis seniors as the Committee may determine having regard to the relative merits and seniority of those senior to him.
- (v) A list of all persons held eligible for promotion under the Recruitment Rules of the post prepared in order of their seniority together with the service record and statement of particulars in respect of each candidate duly certified by the Officer Incharge Establishment of the Corporation that no eligible person has been left out, shall be placed before the Departmental Promotion Committee.

Only those persons would be eligible who have completed requisite period of service prescribed in these rules on the 1st day of the calendar year in which promotions are considered.
- (vi) The Selection Committee after considering the cases of all the candidates included in the list and after interviewing such of them as they deem necessary, shall select candidates equal to one and half times the vacancies likely to be fitted by promotion and shall arrange their names in order of merit. The Selection Committee shall also prepare a separate list of persons not considered for promotion, which will form an 'Annexure to the panel of selected candidates.
- (vii) Orders of promotion shall be issued by the Appointing Authority from the panel of selected candidates given by the Departmental Promotion Committee as and when vacancies arise.
- (viii) A person who is found fit for appointment by promotion shall be so appointed on probation for one year extendable to another one year and will be confirmed on satisfactory completion of this period. If at the end of this period his performance is not found satisfactory the appointing authority may revert him to the post held by him immediately before his promotion.
- (ix) A person who is not found fit for promotion at a particular meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee, shall not be passed over merely on the ground that he was not found fit at an earlier meeting. Such a person shall invariably be considered afresh at every meeting alongwith other eligible persons.

B. Selection and Non Selection Posts:

- (i) All posts in category I shall be considered as Selection Posts. Promotions in respect of these shall Sulldoie.be made by selection on the basis of merit and seniority will be considered only in cases of equal merit.

- (ii) All posts in category II, III and IV shall be considered as Non-Selection Posts. Promotions to these posts will ordinarily be made on the basis of seniority subject to rejection of unfit.

III. Procedure Relating to Deputation

The appointing authority may fill in any post by deputation of an employee of the State Govt. or Government Institution or Central Warehousing Corporation or any State Warehousing Corporation subject to the following conditions:

- (a) A post to be filled by promotion shall not be filled by deputation unless eligible candidates are not available for promotion and if available are not found suitable;
- (b) The period of deputation in the first instance shall be one year which period may be further extended from time to time upto a period of three years. In exceptional cases it may be extended upto five years by the Executive Committee;
- (c) The terms and conditions of service of persons on deputation shall be governed by the terms of deputation mutually agreed upon between the Parent Department and the Corporation.

Notwithstanding anything contained in section IV above, the appointing authority may fill a post by transfer of an employee of the State Government, Central Warehousing Corporation or any State Warehousing Corporation possessing requisite qualifications and experience and the pay and seniority etc. of such person will be decided as hereinafter provided. Such appointments shall be subject to following further conditions:

- (i) Appointment by transfer shall be made ordinarily on posts available for direct recruitment.
- (ii) Pay of such person shall be fixed at minimum of the pay scale or at the stage equivalent to the pay he was getting in the parent organisation or at the next higher stage in the pay scale of the Corporation, in case there is no equivalent stage. Higher pay in suitable cases may, however, be allowed by the Executive Committee, in view of the qualifications and experience.
- (iii) In case of an employee who is already on deputation with the Corporation, the pay will be fixed after adding the deputation allowance, he may be getting to his notional pay in the parent organisation, but the difference of pay under this clause over that admissible under clause (ii) will be treated as personal pay to be merged in future increments.
- (iv) The seniority of such officers, shall be fixed in the particular grade with effect from the date of their original deputation to that grade.

The Corporation will not accept any liability for retirement, benefits etc. in respect of the past services of such employees except to the Extent of the Contribution agreed to be made by the parent organisation and actually received by the Corporation.

SECTION-V

8. Principles for Determining Seniority:-

- (i) Seniority in essence means length of service in a particular post or grade. Thus seniority shall be determined with reference to the date of priority of appointment to a particular post or grade or in equivalent post or grade.

If an appointment order contains names of more than one person, the person, whose name figures first in the order of appointment will be senior to the one whose name appears next to him and so on.

- (ii) When appointments are made on the basis of a competitive examination or test, names of the successful candidates shall be arranged in the order of the merit as determined by the number of marks obtained in the examination or test and their seniority will be in the order of merit so determined.
- (iii) In the case of Apprentice Officers/employees who are confirmed substantively in a grade the date of appointment for purposes of this rule will be the date of their initial appointment as Apprentice in that grade.
- (iv) When appointments are made on the basis of interviews only names of the selected candidates shall be arranged in the order of preference determined by the Selection Committee and appointments shall be made in that order and their seniority will be determined accordingly.
- (v) Persons serving on deputation in the Corporation shall have no seniority assigned to them vis-a-vis the regular employees, of the Corporation and there shall be no combined seniority list of them for purpose of promotion.
- (vi) The candidates appointed by promotion shall be senior to those appointed by direct recruitment in the same calendar year.
- (vii) In the case of persons appointed in the same grade and having joined on the same day and not covered by Sub-regulation (ii) to (iv) above, the person older in age will be senior to that other.
- (viii) If any question arises regarding the seniority of an employee, the decision of the Managing Director/Chairman shall be final in the matter.

SECTION-VI

Leave and Joining Time

9. General Conditions Governing Grant of Leave:- The following general Principles shall govern the grant of leave to employees:

- (i) Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. When the exigencies of Corporation's service so require, the discretion to refuse, postpone, curtail or revoke leave of any description or recall to duty any employee already on leave is reserved to the authority competent to grant it.
- (ii) *
- (iii) An employee on leave shall not take up any other service or accept any employment.
- (iv) Leave shall not be availed of without obtaining the prior sanction of the competent authority; applications for such sanction shall be submitted in writing to the competent authority in such form as may be prescribed by the Corporation, sufficiently in advance which in the case of Privilege Leave shall not be less than 15 days before the date on which the leave applied for is to commence, in case where an employee is compelled to absent himself from duty on account of unforeseen circumstances without obtaining prior sanction, sanction for leave should be applied for at the earliest possible opportunity.

* Deleted vide Gazette Notification dated 15-07-1993

- (v) An employee is expected to avail himself of the leave granted fully before resuming duty and may not return to duty before the expiry of such leave except with the permission of the competent authority:
Provided that an employee who has been granted casual leave may at any time before the expiry of such leave rejoin duty without availing himself of the full period of the casual leave sanctioned.
- (vi) If an employee after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof, he shall apply by letter or telegram to the leave sanctioning authority as aforesaid in sufficient time for the reply to reach him before the date on which the employee would have to start back to resume his duties.
- *(vii) If on account of sickness, accident or the like, an employee is unable to resume his duties by the due date, he shall notify the leave sanctioning authority as aforesaid without any delay and in the event of sickness or accident furnish a medical certificate given by the prescribed appropriate medical authority as per orders/directions of the Government of Rajasthan issued from time to time.
- (viii) Leave begins from the day on which charge is handed over if such handing-over takes place in the forenoon of that day or from the next day of such handing over takes place on the afternoon of that day; leave ends on the day preceding that on which charge is resumed if such resumption takes place in the forenoon and on the next day on which charge is resumed if such resumption takes place in the afternoon.
- (ix) Any kind of leave may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave:
Provided that casual leave cannot be availed of in conjunction or combination with any other kind of leave.
- (x) Unless otherwise provided, employees on deputation shall be governed by the leave rules applicable in their parent departments except in respect of casual leave.
- (xi) An employee before proceeding on leave shall intimate to the competent authority his address while on leave and shall keep the said authority informed of any change in the address from time to time.
- (xii) Leave may be prefixed or suffixed to a holiday but holidays intervening during the period of leave shall except in the case of casual leave count as part of leave.
- (xiii) (a) An employee who absents himself without leave for seven continuous days or absents himself after the expiry of the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, shall, cease to be in the employment of the Corporation unless he submits satisfactory explanation to the competent authority for his absence.
(b) An employee who absents without leave or before any leave is sanctioned or who does not report for duty after the expiry of his leave is entitled to no leave salary for the period of absence. Absence without leave, moreover, amounts to interruption in service involving forfeiture of past service, unless on satisfactory reasons being furnished, the period of such willful absence is commuted into leave without pay.

10. Casual Leave:- Casual leave may, be granted upto a maximum of 15 days during a calendar year. An employee will not be permitted to avail himself of more than 10 days casual leave at a time. Casual Leave unavailed of at the end of the calendar year shall lapse.

* Ammended vide Gazette Notification dated 27.6.1996

11. Privilege Leave:-*

- (i) A Corporation servant whether temporary or permanent shall be entitled to privilege leave of 30 days in a calendar year.

A Corporation servant shall be entitled to accumulate leave upto a maximum period of 300 days.

returning to duty on the expiry of leave and (ii) earning thereafter leave not less than the amount of leave not due availed of by him. The prospect of returning to duty on the expiry of the leave should be assessed on the basis of the certificate given by the appropriate medical authority. The prospect of earning atleast an equivalent amount of leave not due should be assessed with reference to the fact whether in the normal course the employee would have enough service after his returning to duty within which he would be able to wipe of the debit balance.

13. Maternity Leave:-

- (1)* Maternity leave may be granted to a female Corporation employee with less than two surviving children upto a period of 180 days from the date of its commencement. However, if there is no surviving child even after availing it twice, Maternity Leave may be granted on one more occasion. During such period, she will be entitled to leave salary equal to pay drawn immediately before proceeding on leave. Such leave shall not be debited to the leave account but such entry should be made in the service book separately.
- (2) Maternity leave may also be granted in case of miscarriage, including abortion which is complete, subject to the condition that:
 - (i) the leave does not exceed six weeks and
 - (ii) the application for the leave is supported by a certificate from the authorised Medical Officer.
- (3) Temporary woman employee having put in service of more than 6 months may also be allowed maternity leave.
- (4) Maternity leave may be combined with leave of any kind, but any leave applied for in continuation of the former may be granted only if the request be supported by medical Certificate.

14. Study Leave :- Study leave maybe sanctioned to a permanent employee by the Corporation or any authority to whom powers may be delegated in this behalf, provided the sanctioning authority is of the opinion that such leave should be granted in Corporation's interests to pursue a special course of study or investigation, scientific or technical in nature.

- (a) Study leave for the purpose of study may be taken either in India or outside India. It may be combined with such other leave as the employee is entitled to. In no case should the grant of this leave in combination with leave other than extraordinary leave, involve an absence of over twenty four months from the employee's regular duties, or exceed two years in the whole period of the employee's service.
- (b) Study leave is extra leave on half pay and leave salary during such leave shall be equal to half the amount specified in Regulation 11 (iii).
- (c) An employee who avails the study leave admissible under these regulations shall execute a bond in form and for such period to serve the Corporation as may be prescribed by the Board of Director/ Executive Committee.

15. Extra-Ordinary Leave :-

- (a) An employee may be granted extraordinary leave in special circumstances when no other leave is admissible or when other leave being admissible, the employee applies for the grant of extraordinary leave.

* Substituted vide Gazette Notification dated 30.10.2014

- (b) Except in the case of a permanent employee, the duration of extraordinary leave shall not exceed three months or twelve months on any one occasion, the longer period being admissible only on medical grounds. The total period of extraordinary leave (including three months) shall not exceed two years during entire period of an employee's service. The leave sanctioning authority may grant extraordinary leave in combination of privilege leave at the request of the employee.
- (c) No leave salary shall be paid for the period spent on extraordinary leave.

16. Special Disability Leave :-

- (i) Subject to the condition specified in this Regulation, Corporation may grant special disability leave to an employee who is disabled by injury intentionally inflicted or caused in or consequence of due performance of duties or in consequence of his position in the Corporation's service.
- (ii) Such leave shall not be granted unless the disability manifested itself within three months of the occurrence to which it is attributed and the person disabled acted with due promptitude in bringing it to notice. But the Corporation if it is satisfied as to the cause of the disability, may permit leave to be granted in cases where the disability, manifested itself more than three months after the occurrence of its cause.
- (iii) The period of leave granted shall be such as is certified by a Medical Authority, specified by the Corporation to be necessary.
- (iv) It shall not be extended except on the certificate of a Medical Authority, specified by the Corporation and shall in no case exceed 24 months. Such leave may be combined with leave of any other kind.
- (v) Special disability leave may be granted more than once if disability is aggravated or reproduced in similar circumstances at a later date, but not more than 24 months of such leave shall be granted in consequence of any one disability.
- (vi) Such leave shall be counted as duty in calculating service for Contributory Provident Fund Rules.

- (10) The inquiry officer, shall return a finding of guilt in respect of the articles of charge to which the employee pleads guilty.
- (11) The inquiring officer shall, if the employee fails to appear within the specified time or refuses, or omits to plead, require the Presenting Officer to produce the evidence by which he proposes to prove the articles of charge and shall adjourn the case to a later date not exceeding thirty days, after recording an order that the employee may, for the purpose of preparing his defence:-
- (i) Inspect within five days of the order or within such further time not exceeding five days as the inquiring officer may allow the documents specified in the list referred to in sub-rule(3).
 - (ii) submit a list of witnesses to be examined on his behalf.

NOTE:If the employee applies orally or in writing for the supply of copies of the statement of witnesses mentioned in the list referred to in sub rule (3) the inquiring officer shall furnish him with such copies as early as possible and in any case not later than three days before the commencement of the examination of the witnesses on behalf of the disciplinary authority.

- (iii) give a notice within ten days of the order or within such further time not exceeding ten days as the inquiring officer may allow, for the discovery or production of any documents which are in the possession of Corporation but not mentioned in the list referred to in sub-rule(3).

NOTE:The employee shall indicate the relevance of the documents required by him to be discovered or produced by the Corporation.

- (12) The inquiring officer shall, on receipt of the notice or the discovery or production of documents, forward the same or copies thereof to the authority in whose custody or possession the documents are kept, with a requisition for the production of the document, by such date as may be specified in such requisition.

Provided that the inquiring officer may, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, refuse to requisition such of the documents as are, in his opinion, not relevant to the case.

- (13) On receipt of the requisition referred to in sub-rule (12) every authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents shall produce the same before the inquiring officer.

Provided that if the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents is satisfied for reasons to be recorded by it in writing that the production of all or any of such documents would be against the public interest or security of the State, he shall inform the inquiring officer accordingly and the inquiring officer shall, on being so informed, communicate the information to the employee and withdraw the requisition made by it for the production or discovery of such documents.

- (14) On the date fixed for the inquiry, the oral and documentary evidence by which the articles of charge are proposed to be proved shall be produced by or on behalf of the disciplinary authority. The witnesses shall be examined by the Presenting Officer and may be cross examined by or on behalf of the employee. The presenting officer shall be entitled to re-examine the witnesses on any points on which they have been cross examined, but not on any new matter, without the leave of the inquiring officer. The inquiring officer may also put such questions to the witnesses as he thinks fit.

- (15) If it shall appear necessary before the close of the case on behalf of the disciplinary authority, the enquiring officer may, in his discretion, allow the Presenting Officer, to produce evidence not included in the list given to the employee or may himself call for new evidence or recall and re-examine any witness and in such case the employee shall be entitled to have, if he demands it, a copy of the list of further evidence proposed to be produced and an adjournment of the inquiry for three clear days before the production of such new evidence exclusive of the days of the adjournment and the days to which the inquiry is adjourned. The inquiring officer shall give the employee an opportunity of inspecting such documents before they are taken on the record. The inquiring officer may also allow the employee to produce new evidence, if he is of the opinion that the production of such evidence is necessary in the interest of justice.

Note:- New evidence shall not be permitted or called for or any witness shall not be recalled to fill up any gap in the evidence. Such evidence may be called for only when there is an inherent lacuna or defect in the evidence which has been produced originally.

- (16) When the case for the disciplinary authority is closed, the employee shall be required to state his defence orally or in writing, as he may prefer. If the defence is made orally, it shall be recorded and the employee shall be required to sign the record. In either case a copy of the statement of defence shall be given to the presenting officer, if any, appointed.

- (17) The evidence on behalf of the employee shall then be produced. The employee may examine himself in his own behalf if he so prefers. The witnesses produced by the employee shall then be examined and shall be liable to cross-examination, re-examination and examination by the inquiring officer according to the provisions applicable to the witnesses for the disciplinary authority.

- (18) The inquiring officer may, after the employee closes his case, and shall, if the employee has not examined himself, generally question him on the circumstances appealing against him in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the employee to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him.
- (19) The inquiring officer may, after the completion of the production of evidence, hear the employee and/or his assisting officer & the presenting officer if any appointed, or permit them to file written brief of their respective cases, if they so desire.
- (20) If the employee to whom a copy of the articles of charge has been delivered, does not submit the written statement of defence on or before the date specified for the purpose or does not appear in person before the inquiring officer or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this rule, the inquiring officer may hold the inquiry ex parte.
- (21) (a) Where a disciplinary authority competent to impose any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iv) of Rule 1 has itself inquired into or caused to be inquired into the articles of any charge and the said authority, having regard to its own findings or any inquiring officer appointed by it, is of the opinion that the penalties specified in clauses (v) to (viii) of Rule I should be imposed on the employee, the inquiring officer shall forward the records of the inquiry to such disciplinary authority as is competent to impose the last mentioned penalties.
- (b) The disciplinary authority to which the records are so forwarded may act on the evidence on the record or may, if it is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witness in the interest of justice, recall the witness and examine, cross-examine and re-examine and may impose on the employee such penalty as it may deem fit in accordance with these rules.
- (22) Whenever any inquiring officer, after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an enquiry ceases to exercise jurisdiction therein, and is succeeded by another inquiring officer which has, and which exercises, such jurisdiction, the inquiry officer so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by its predecessor, or Partly recorded by its predecessor and partly recorded by itself.

Provided that if the succeeding inquiring officer is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witnesses whose evidence has already been recorded is necessary in the interest of justice, it may recall, examine, cross examine and re-examine any such witnesses as herein before provided.

- (23) (i) After the conclusion of the inquiry, a report shall be prepared and it shall contain:
- (a) The articles of charge and the statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (b) The defence of the employee in respect of each article of charges;
- (c) An assessment of the evidence in respect of each article of charges;
- (d) The findings on each article of charge and the reasons therefore.

EXPLANATION:- If in the opinion of the inquiring officer the proceedings of the inquiry establish any article of charge different from the original articles of the charge he may record his findings on such article of charge;

Provided that the findings on such article of charge shall not be recorded unless the employee has either admitted the facts on which such article of charge is based or has had a reasonable opportunity of defending himself against such article of charge.

- (ii) The inquiring officer, where he is not himself the disciplinary authority, shall forward to the disciplinary authority the records of inquiry which shall include:
 - (a) The report prepared by him under clause (i);
 - (b) The written statement of defence, if any, submitted by the employee;
 - (c) The oral and documentary evidence produced in the course of the inquiry;
 - (d) Written briefs, if any, filed by the presenting officer or the employee or both during the course of the enquiry; and
 - (e) the orders, if any, made by the disciplinary authority and the inquiring officer in regard to the inquiry.

5. Action on the Enquiry Report :

- (1) The disciplinary authority, if it is not itself the inquiring officer may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing remit the case to the enquiring officer for further inquiry and report and the inquiring officer shall thereupon proceed to hold the further inquiry according to the provisions of rule 4 as far as may be;
- (2) The disciplinary authority shall, if it disagrees with the findings of the inquiring officer on any article of charge, record its reasons for such disagreement and record its own findings on such charge, if the evidence on record is sufficient for the purpose;
- (3) If the disciplinary authority having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iv) of Rule I should be imposed on the employee, it shall, notwithstanding anything contained in rule 6, make an order imposing such penalty;
- (4) If the disciplinary authority having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (v) to (viii) of rule I should be imposed on the employee, it shall:

Furnish to the employee a copy of the report of the inquiry held by it and its findings on each article of charge, or where the inquiry has been held by an inquiring officer appointed by it, a copy of the report of such authority and a statement of its finding on each article of charge together with brief reasons for its disagreement, if any, with the findings of the inquiring officer.

6. Procedure for Imposing Minor Penalties:

- (1) When it is proposed to impose any of the minor penalties on any employee he shall be informed in writing of the allegations or charges on account of which it is proposed to impose the penalty on him and asked to submit his explanation within a specified period not exceeding 7 days. The explanation and evidence, if any, furnished by the employee shall be taken into consideration by the Disciplinary Authority before passing orders.
- (2) The record of the proceedings in such cases shall include :
 - (a) A copy of the statement of allegations and/or charges communicated to the employee;
 - (b) The explanations and evidence, if any, furnished by the employee; and
 - (c) The findings of, and the order passed by the disciplinary authority.

- (3) Where the penalty of withholding of increment or promotion etc. is imposed on an employee, the disciplinary authority shall state the period for which it will be effective and where increment is withheld, it will, be granted on the expiry of the period without affecting the normal date of increment in future, unless the order indicates that the stoppage of increment will have cumulative effect.

7. Communication of Orders :- Orders made by the disciplinary authority shall be communicated to the employee who shall also be supplied with a copy of the report of the inquiry, if any, held by the disciplinary authority and a copy of its findings on each article of charge, or where, the disciplinary authority is not the inquiring officer, a copy of the report of the inquiring officer and a statement of the findings of the disciplinary authority together with brief reasons for its disagreement, if any, with the findings of the inquiring officer (unless they have already been supplied to him).

8. Common Proceedings:- (1) Where two or more employees are concerned in any case, the Board or any other authority competent to impose the penalty of dismissal from service on all such employees may make an order directing that disciplinary action against all of them may be taken in a common proceeding.

Note :- If the authorities competent to impose the penalty of dismissal on such employees are different, an order for taking disciplinary action in a common proceeding may be made by the highest of such authorities with the consent of the others.

(2) Any such order shall specify;

- (i) The authority which may function as the disciplinary authority for purpose of such common proceeding;
- (ii) The penalties specified in Rule 1 which such disciplinary authority shall be competent to impose;
- (iii) Whether the procedure laid down in rule 4 and rules 5 and 6 shall be followed in the proceedings.

9. Special Procedure in certain cases :- In cases where

- (i) A penalty is imposed on an employee on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge, or on the strength of facts or conclusion arrived at by a judicial trial; or
- (ii) The employee on whom a penalty is imposed is absconding,
- (iii) The reasons of security so warrant; the disciplinary authority may dismiss an employee from the service without following the procedure laid down in these rules.

PART - III

SUSPENSION

10. (i) The appointing authority or any authority to which it is subordinate or the disciplinary authority or any other authority empowered in this behalf by the Board by general or special order, may place an employee under suspension;
- (a) Where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending; or
- (b) Where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial, Provided that where the order of suspension, is made by an authority lower than the appointing authority, such authority shall forthwith report to the appointing authority the circumstance in which the order was made.
- (ii) An employee, shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of appointing authority:
- (a) With effect from the date of his detention, if he is detained in custody, whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding forty-eight hours;
- (b) With effect from the date of his conviction, if in the event of a conviction for an offence, he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding forty-eight hours and is not forthwith dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired consequent to such conviction.

EXPLANATION :- The period of forty-eight hours referred to in clause (b) of this sub-rule shall be computed from the commencement of the imprisonment after the conviction and for this purpose, intermittent periods of imprisonment, if any, shall be taken into account.

- (iii) An order of suspension made under this rule, may at any time be revoked by the authority which made the order, or by any higher authority.
- (iv) An order of suspension shall be followed by a chargesheet within fifteen days, except where a case for a criminal offence against the employee is under investigation or trial.

Note :-Leave cannot be granted to an employee while under suspension except in case of serious illness, infirmity or for such other reasons as authority competent to sanction leave is satisfied that they are genuine.

11. Subsistence Allowance :- An employee under suspension shall be entitled to subsistence allowance equal to half of the total of his basic pay and dearness allowance, if any, provided that he declares to the satisfaction of the Disciplinary Authority that he is not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation, if the period of suspension exceeds 6 months, for reasons to be recorded in writing), for which the employee is not responsible, the subsistence allowance will be 3/4th of his basic pay plus dearness allowance if any. If however, the period of suspension is to be extended beyond 6 months, for reasons (to be recorded in writing) for which the employee is responsible the subsistence allowance will be reduced to 1/4th of the basic pay plus dearness allowance, if any. A report shall be made to the Managing Director or the Executive Committee or the Board, as the case may be, in either case explaining the reasons for the delay in the disposal of the case.

1. Substituted vide Gazette Notification dated 9th May, 1985

12. Pay and Allowance on Reinstatement :

- (i) When, an employee who has been dismissed, removed or suspended is reinstated, the authority competent to order the reinstatement should consider and make a specific order :
 - (a) Regarding the pay and allowance to be paid to the employee for the period of his absence from duty; and
 - (b) Whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.
- (ii) An employee who is fully exonerated or in the case of suspension where it was wholly unjustified, he shall be given the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or suspended, as the case may be.
- (iii) In other cases, the employee may be given such proportion of such pay and dearness allowance as the competent authority may prescribe and who may also specifically direct whether the period of absence from duty shall be treated as period spent on duty or not for any specified purpose.

PART - IV

PROVISION REGARDING OFFICERS & OTHER EMPLOYEES BORROWED FROM STATE GOVERNMENT, GOVERNMENT OWNED ORGANISATIONS, GOVERNMENT COMPANIES & CORPORATIONS

13. (1) Where an order of suspension is made or disciplinary proceedings are conducted against an employee, whose services have been borrowed from the State Government, or a Government owned organisation, Government Company or Corporation, the authority lending his service, (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the "lending authority") shall forthwith be informed of the circumstances leading to the order of the suspension of the employee or the commencement of disciplinary proceedings against him as the case may be.
- (2) (a) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceeding conducted against such employee, if the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that any of the minor penalties should be imposed on him, the disciplinary authority may, pass such orders on the case as it deems necessary after consultation with the lending authority, provided that in the event of a difference of opinion between the Disciplinary Authority and the Lending Authority, the services of the employee shall be placed at the disposal of the lending authority.
- (b) If the disciplinary authority is of the opinion that any of the major penalties should be imposed on him, it should replace his services at the disposal of the lending authority and transmit to it the proceedings of the enquiry for such action as it deems necessary.
- (3) If the employee submits an appeal against an order imposing a minor penalty on him under sub-rule (2) (a), it will be disposed of after consultation with the Lending Authority, provided that if there is a difference of opinion between the Appellate Authority and the Lending Authority, the services of the employee shall be placed at the disposal of the Lending Authority, and the proceedings of the case shall be transmitted to that authority for such action as it deems necessary.

PART-V

APPEALS

- 14. Orders against which Appeal Lies. :- An employee may prefer an appeal against all or any of the following orders:
- (i) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under rule 10;
 - (ii) An order imposing any of the penalties specified in rule 4 whether made by the disciplinary authority or by any appellate or reviewing authority;
 - (iii) An order enhancing any penalty, imposed under rule 4;
 - (iv) Any order which :
 - (a) Denies or varies to his disadvantage his pay, allowances, or other conditions of service as regulated by rules or by agreement; or
 - (b) Interprets to his disadvantage the provisions of any such rule or agreement;
 - (v) An order:
 - (a) Stopping him at the efficiency bar in the time scale of pay on the ground of his unfitness to cross the bar;
 - (b) Reverting him while officiating in a higher service, grade or post to a lower service, grade or post otherwise than as a penalty;
 - (c) Determining his pay and allowances:
 - (i) For the period of suspension, or
 - (ii) For the period from the date of his dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service, or from the date of his reduction to a lower service, grade, post, time-scale or stage in a time-scale of pay, to the date of his reinstatement or restoration to his service, grade or post, or;
 - (d) determining whether or not the period from the date of his suspension or from the date of his dismissal, removal, compulsory retirement or reduction to a lower service, grade, post, timescale of pay or stage in a time-scale of pay to the date of his reinstatement or restoration to his service, grade, or post shall be treated as a period spent on duty for any purpose.
- 15. Appellate Authority :- An employee including a person who has ceased to be in Corporation's service, may prefer an appeal against all or any of the orders specified in rule 14 to the authority specified in this behalf either in the Schedule or by a general or special order of the Board.
- 16. Period of Limitation for Appeals:- No appeal preferred under this part shall be entertained unless such appeal is preferred within a period of sixty days from the date on which a copy of the order appealed against is delivered to the appellant;
- Provided that the appellate authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant has sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal in time.

17. Form and Contents of Appeal:

- (1) Every person preferring an appeal shall do so separately and in his own name.
- (2) The appeal shall be presented to the authority to whom the appeal lies, a copy being forwarded by the appellant to the authority which made the order appealed against. It shall contain all material statements and arguments on which the appellant relies, shall not contain an disrespectful or improper language and shall be complete in itself.
- (3) The authority which made the order appealed against shall on receipt of a copy of the appeal forward the same with its comments thereon together with the relevant records to the appellate authority without any avoidable delay and without waiting for any direction from the appellate authority.

18. Consideration of Appeal:

- (1) In the case of an appeal against an order of suspension, the appellate authority shall consider whether in the light of the provisions of rule 10 and having regard to the circumstances of the case, the order of suspension is justified or not and confirm or revoke the order accordingly.
- (2) In the case of an appeal against an order imposing any of the penalties specified in rule 1 or to enhancing any penalty imposed under the said rule, the appellate authority shall consider :
 - (a) Whether the procedure laid down in these rules has been complied with, and if not, whether such non-compliance has resulted in the violation of any provisions of any laws or in the failure of justice;
 - (b) Whether the findings of the disciplinary authority are warranted by the evidence on the record; and
 - (c) Whether the penalty or the enhanced penalty imposed is adequate, inadequate or severe,
 - (i) Confirming, enhancing, reducing, or setting aside the penalty; or
 - (ii) Remitting the case to the authority which imposed or enhanced the penalty or to any other authority with such direction as it may deem fit in the circumstances of the case;

Provided that:-

- (i) If the enhanced penalty which the appellate authority proposes to impose is one of the major penalties and an enquiry under rule 4 has not already been held in the case, the appellate authority, shall itself hold such inquiry or direct that such enquiry be held in accordance with the provisions of rule 4 and thereafter, on a consideration of the proceedings of such enquiry and after giving the appellant a reasonable opportunity, as far as may be in accordance with the provisions stated herein before, of making a representation against the penalty proposed on the basis of the evidence adduced during such enquiry, make such orders as it may deem fit; and
- (ii) If the enhanced penalty which the appellate authority proposes to impose is one of the major penalties and an enquiry has already been held in the case, the appellant authority shall, after giving the appellant a reasonable opportunity, as far as may be in accordance with making a representation against the penalty proposed on the basis of the evidence adduced during the enquiry make such orders as it may deem fit; and

- (iii) No order imposing an enhanced penalty shall be made in any other case unless the appellant has been given a reasonable opportunity, as far as may be in accordance with the provisions of these rules of making a representation against such enhanced penalty.

In an appeal against any other order specified in rule 14 the appellate authority shall consider all the circumstances of the case and make such orders as it may deem just and equitable.

- 19. Implementation of Orders in Appeal:- The authority which made the order appealed against shall give effect to the orders passed by the appellate authority.

PART - VI

REVIEW

20. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules :
- (i) The Board/Executive Committee, or
 - (ii) The appellate authority within six months of the date of the order proposed to be reviewed, or
 - (iii) Any other authority specified in this behalf by the Board by a general or special order, and within such time as may be prescribed in such general or special order;
- May at any time, either on his or its own motion or otherwise call for the records of any enquiry and review any order made under these rules and may:
- (a) Confirm, modify or set aside the order; or
 - (b) Confirm, reduce, enhance or set aside the penalty imposed by the order or impose any penalty where no penalty has been imposed; or
 - (c) Remit the case to the authority which made the order or to any other authority directing such authority to make such further inquiry as it may consider proper in the circumstances of the case, and
 - (d) Pass such other orders as it may deem fit; Provided that no order imposing or enhancing any penalty shall be made by any reviewing authority unless the employee concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of making a representation against the penalty proposed and where it is proposed to impose any of the major penalties, or to enhance the penalty imposed by the order sought to be reviewed, no such penalty shall be imposed except after an enquiry in the manner laid down in rule 4 and after giving a reasonable opportunity to the employee concerned of showing cause against the penalty proposed on the evidence adduced during the enquiry.
- (2) No proceeding for review shall be commenced until after :
- (i) The expiry of the period of limitation for an appeal, or
 - (ii) The disposal of the appeal, where any such appeal has been preferred;
- (3) An application for review shall be dealt within the same manner as if it were an appeal under these rules.

PART - VII

MISCELLANEOUS

- 21. Service of Orders, Notices etc.:- Every order, notice and other process made or issued under these rules shall be served in person on the employee concerned or communicated to him by registered post.
- 22. Power to interpret these Rules :- The Board of Directors, Executive Committee reserve the right to interpret the provisions of these rules.
