Form V
(See rule 23)

Abstract of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 and the Rules made thereunder.

When the Act affects-

1. The Act applies to the Payment of Wages to persons in Factories or Industrial Establishment receiving less than Rs.400/- a month.
2. No employed person can give up by contract or agreement his rights under the Act.

Definition of Wages

3. 'Wages' means all remunerations whether salary, allowances or otherwise payable to a person employed in respect of his employment of work done in such employment.

It includes:-

- (a) any remuneration payable under any award or settlement between the parties or order of a court;
- (b) any remuneration to which the person employed is entitled in respect of over-time work or holdings or any leave period;
- (c) any additional remuneration payable under the terms of employment;
- (d) any sum which by reason of the termination of employment of the person employed is payable under any law, contract or instrument which provides for the payment of such sum, whether with or without deductions, but does not provide for the time within which the payment is to be made;
- (e) any sum to which the person employed is entitled under any scheme framed under any law for the time being in force.

It excludes:-

- (1) any bonus which does not form part of the remuneration payable under the terms of employment or which is not payable under any award or settlement between the parties or order of a court;
- (2) the value of any house accommodation, or of the supply of light, water, medical attendance or other amenity or of any service excluded from the computation of wages by an order of the State Government;
- (3) any contribution paid by the employer to any pension or provident fund, and the interest which may have accrued thereon;
- (4) any travelling allowance or the value of any travelling concession;
- (5) any sum paid to the employed person to defray special expense entailed by him by the nature of his employment; or
- (6) any gratuity payable on the termination of employment in cases other than those specified in sub-clause(d).

Responsibility for and method of Payment:-

4. The Paymaster is responsible for the payment under the Act of Wages to person employed under him and contractor employing persons is responsible for payment to the persons he employs.
5. Wages period shall be fixed for the payment of wages at intervals not exceeding one month.
6. Wages shall be paid on a working day within seven days of the end of the wage period or within ten days if 1,000 or more persons are employed.
The wages of a person discharged shall be paid not later than the second working day after his discharge.
7. Payments in kind are prohibited.

Fines and Deductions

8. No deductions shall be made from wages except those authorised under the Act (see paragraphs 9 to 15 below).
9. (1) Fines can be imposed only for such acts and omissions as the employer may, with the previous approval of the Chief Inspector of Factories specify by a notice displayed at or near the main factory or industrial establishment and after giving the employed person an opportunity for explanation.
(2) Fines :-

- (a) shall not exceed half an anna in the rupee.
- (b) shall not be recovered by installments or later than sixty days on the date of imposition.
- (c) shall be recorded in a register and applied to such purposes beneficial to the employed person as are approved by the Chief Inspector of Factories.
- (d) shall not be imposed on a child.

10. (a) Deduction for absence from duty can be made only on account of the absence of the employed person at times when he should be working and such deductions must not exceed an amount which is in the same proportion to his wages for the wage period as the time he was absent in that period is to the total time he would have been at work.

(b) If ten or more employed persons acting in a concern absent themselves without reasonable cause and without due notice the deduction for absence can include wages for eight days in lieu of notice but:-

(1) no deduction for breaking a contract can be made from a person under 15 years of age or a woman;

(2) there must be a provision in writing which forms part of the contract of employment, requiring that a specific period of notice of intention to cease work not exceeding 15 days or the period of notice which the employer has to give to discharge a work must be given to the employer and that wages may be deducted in lieu of such notice;

(3) the above provision must be displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory or industrial establishment;

(4) no deduction of this nature can be made until a notice that this deduction is to be made has been posted at or near the main entrance of the factory or industrial establishment;

(5) no deduction must exceed the wages of the employed person for the period by which the notice gives of leaving employment, is less than the notice he should give under his contract.

11. Deductions can be made for damage to or loss of goods expressly entrusted to an employed person or for loss of money for which he is required to account, where such damage or loss is due to his neglect or default.

Such deduction cannot exceed the amount of the damage or loss caused and can be made only after giving the employed person an opportunity for explanation.

12. Deduction can be made, equivalent to the value thereof, for house accommodation supplied by the employer or by Government or any housing board set up under any law for the time being in force (Whether the Government or the board is the employer or not) or any other authority engaged in the business of subsidizing house accommodation which may be specified in this behalf by the State Government amenities or services (other than tools and raw material) supplied by the employer provided these are accepted by the employed person as a part of the term of his employment and have in the case of amenities and services been authorised by order of the State Government.

13. (a) Deductions can be made for the recovery of advances or for adjustment of over-payment of wages.

(b) Advance made before the employment began can only be recovered from the first payment of wages for a complete wage period but no recovery can be made of advances given for travelling expenses before employment began.

(c) Advances of unearned wages can be made at the paymaster's discretion during employment but must not exceed the amount of two months' wages without the permission of an inspector.

These advances can be recovered by installments spread over not more than 12 months and the installments must not exceed one-third or if the wages are not more than Rs.20/- one fourth of the wages for any wage period.

14. Deductions can be made for subscription to and for repayment of advances from any recognized provident fund.

15. Deductions can be made for payments to co-operative societies approved by the State Government or to the postal insurance subject to any conditions imposed by the State Government. Education can also be made with the written authorization of the person employed for payment of any premium on his life insurance policy to the Life Insurance Corporation of India or for the purchase of securities of the Government of India or of any State Government or for being deposited in any Post Office Savings Bank in furtherance of any savings scheme of any such Government.

15(A). Any loss of wages resulting from withholding of increment or promotion reduction to lower post or time scale or to a lower Stage in a time scale or suspension does not constitute deduction from wages within the meaning of the Act. For this purpose the rules framed by an employer in relation to his employees in factories or Industrial Establishments for purpose of any of the aforesaid penalties shall be provided that:-

(i) any such penalty as aforesaid, except the penalty of suspension shall not be imposed unless the person concerned:-

(a) has been informed of the charges in respect of which it is proposed to impose the penalty;

(b) has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why the proposed penalty should be imposed;

(ii) the person concerned is given a right of appeal against any order imposing the penalty.

Inspections

16. An Inspector can enter on any premises and can exercise powers of inspection (including examination of documents and taking of evidence) as he may deem necessary for carrying out of the purposes of the Act.

Complaints of deductions or delays

17. (1) Where irregular deductions are made from wages or delays in payment taken place, an employed person can make an application in the prescribed form within six months to the authority appointed by the State Government for the purpose. An application delayed beyond this period may be rejected unless sufficient cause for the delay is shown.

(2) Any legal practitioner, official of a registered trade union, Inspector under the Act or other person acting with the permission of the authority can make the complaint on behalf of an employed person.

(3) A single application may be presented by or, on behalf of any number of persons belonging to the same factory the payment of whose wages has been delayed.

Action by the Authority

18. The authority may award compensation to the employed person in addition to ordering the payment of delayed wages or the refund of illegal deductions.

If a malicious or vexation complaint is made the authority may impose a penalty not exceeding Rs.50/- on the applicant and order that it be paid to the employer.

Appeal against the Authority

19. An appeal against an order dismissing either wholly or part of an application or against a direction made by the authority may be referred within thirty days to the District Court-

(a) by Pay-master, if total amount directed to be paid exceed Rs.300/-

(b) by an employed person or any official of a registered trade union authorised in writing to act on his behalf, if the total amount of wages withheld from him or his co-workers, exceeds Rs.50/-;

(c) by a person directed to pay a penalty for a malicious or vexation applications.

20. Anyone delaying the payment of wages beyond the due date or making any unauthorized deductions from is liable to fine upto Rs.500/-, but only if prosecuted with the sanction of the authority or the appellate court.
